27th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
October 7, 2018
Reading 1188 in our WORSHIP HYMNAL
THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS LIKE A MUSTARD SEED.

If you have to sneeze on the altar do so quietly and turn your head away from the Holy Sacrament. Please carry a handkerchief in the pocket of your trousers. No jeans. Wear good shoes. No sneakers. Arrive 30 minutes early minimum: 5 minutes early is 25 minutes late. The bells, as a crucial part of the Mass, are rung firmly but gently. It is the unaware altar server who rings them too loudly. Be attentive. You too are an integral aspect of the Mass. You are witnessing and abetting a miracle. Always treat the Mass that way. Your service allows the miraculous easier passage into this plane. Never let your cassock be stained or sullied. Similarly your surplice. Do not under any circumstances drink the wine or eat the unconsecrated hosts. You will be tempted to do so. Resist the Tempter. You may be late for, or fail to appear for, only one Mass. If you are late for or miss a second Mass, your privileges are suspended. Two servers in nine years have been ousted. Don't become the third. Honor the parents who are proud of their child's service as witness to Holy Sacrament. It is a gift to serve on the altar. Treat your service as a gift. Listen to the Holy Spirit as you serve. The Mass is ancient and comes to us directly from the hand and words of God when He assumed human form in the person of the Christ. In and through and suffusing every aspect of the quotidian is the sacred. Treat Father with respect, but be aware of his own complex humanity. The sacristy is not a locker room: There is no horseplay, no vulgar language, and no shouting. If you have a problem, or a question, of any sort, or if there is anything whatsoever that you wish to speak to me about, be assured that I will keep it in confidence, and listen with respect for your own miraculous existence, and admirable Service to the Church Eternal and particularly to our parish. Finally as to the length of the hair, any length is acceptable, as long as the hair is noticeably clean. Christ had long hair, but you can be sure that His was clean. Children—be like Him.

We love them all.

A PASTORAL MESSAGE FROM CARDINAL DOLAN

Cardinal Dolan has sent us a pastoral message regarding the crisis facing our Church.

He has asked that we view a video about the Church's commitment to a
"transparency, accountability, and action program"
for the protection of children and vulnerable adults from sexual abuse.
