Second Sunday of Easter

Third Sunday of Easter (C)

May 5, 2019

Readings 1084 in the WORSHIP HYMNAL

“Come, have breakfast”

How awesome is the human hunger that Jesus has after his road trip into hell and back? The poor guy could eat a horse! There's a lot of Spirit to digest, but before he finds his way back to the Source, he's dreaming of a tasty breakfast of fish and some fresh bread to share with his partners in crime—the disciples he loves and who will be following in his footsteps. And don't we love how he makes the fire, sets the sand table, and chars the fish so perfectly for them? And just the same, think about our own food, and the holy meals we share with those we love. And how delicious is the Eucharistic breakfast that Christ shares with us every morning as we return from fishing in our own vast dreamy seas?

DON'T FORGET YOUR MOTHER!

Throughout the month of May,
every Mass will include a special plea for those living or deceased mothers listed on our Mother's Day envelopes,
which can be found in the Narthex.
Complete the envelope and place it in the collection basket or give it to a minister or priest.
We need mothers,
and our mothers need us
and our prayers.

Meeting God In the Dark

An Easter Season Film Series

THE TREE OF LIFE Written and directed by Terrence Mallick

Terrence Malick's "The Tree of Life" is a film of vast ambition and deep humility, attempting no less than to encompass all of existence and view it through the prism of a few infinitesimal lives. With disarming sincerity and daunting formal sophistication "The Tree of Life" ponders some of the hardest and most persistent questions, the kind that leave adults speechless when children ask them.
