Why Do We Need to Sing at Communion?

From the GIRM (General Instructions for the Roman Missal) #86:

While the Priest is receiving the Sacrament, the Communion Chant is begun, its purpose being to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the "communitarian" character of the procession to receive the Eucharist. The singing is prolonged for as long as the Sacrament is being administered to the faithful.

When God blesses
you financially, don't raise your standard
of living.
Raise your standard
of giving.

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

UPCOMING MEETINGS

Tues, Oct 15, Nov 5 & 19
6:15 PM in the CHURCH

"Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him." Psalm 37:7

Why is the psalm we sing a different translation from the one in the hymnal?

The Psalms were composed in the Hebrew language. At the Mass, we use an English translation based on the New American Bible (NAB).

The Hymnal uses a newer translation (the "Abbey Psalms & Canticles"), which will gradually replace the sung NAB translation that we are using now.

Thank you! Peter DeLuca and Andrett Funeral Home

We are so grateful to our constant friend, Peter DeLuca, of Andrett Funeral Home, who treated our altar servers to a morning of bowling, fun, and companionship at BowlMor Lanes.

Peter is a loyal and generous supporter of Epiphany. We treasure the gift of his friendship.

Saturday, October 5 at 3 PM

The Epiphany Rosary Ministry will lead the recitation of the Rosary.

Our prayers will be offered during the exposition of the most Blessed Sacrament. We honor Mary while adoring her beloved son.

Our Special Intention:
We pray for people reaching out in loneliness who have no one to pray for them, that the prayers of the Rosary may embrace and comfort them.

In October, the month of Mary, we dedicate our days to 'Our Mother of the Rosary', as Mary called herself at Fatima.

On Sunday, October 13, after the 12:00 Mass, join us on the plaza to pray the rosary as we commemorate the final appearance of Mary at Fatima.
