while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

It doesn't feel like Holy Week.

We usually build up to this during all of Lent to the point we are ready to enter into the mysteries of Holy Week and walk with the Lord through his Passion, Death and Resurrection.

This year we feel like we are just trying to survive, to avoid getting sick. So many of us are hoping to hold onto our jobs. We may have family members who are taken ill.

And we have no access to Holy Communion since March 15, and this could go on for weeks more.

And yet the hunger for God is there. Maybe that is a very good sign... some indications our love for God is real and powerful.

1. Our Jesus is Coming to You! procession in Deacon Mark's pickup truck met with hundreds of parishioners waiting in the rain all through the neighborhoods of Brewster and Putnam Lake. Thousands more followed it on Facebook.
2. Hundreds of people are tuning in daily to The Daily Bread reflection by yours truly at noon each day. Hundreds more for Cecilia Britez Divine Mercy Holy Hour at 3:00 pm and Lynda Holler at 11:00 pm with the Psalms.
3. Hundreds are streaming the 9:30 Sunday Mass each week as well as the Monday Seasons of Praise and Stations of the Cross.

It's good we have a hunger for God. Maybe missing the Eucharist will increase our devotion and our desire for it and we won't ever take it for granted.

Meanwhile, this week we call "Holy" is a time for reading the Gospel account of Jesus' suffering and death, and for some quiet time reflecting on what's really important in life. You're stuck inside – spend some of that time with God.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Please keep our parishioners with the coronavirus in your prayers. We're aware of and praying for several members of the parish who are sick. Fortunately none are seriously ill.

marian consecration on the feast of the annunciation

Ed Bajor

I recently participated in the Marian Consecration through a do-it-yourself retreat entitled “33 Days to Morning Glory.” This devotion to Our Blessed Mother is a spiritual journey that leads us on a path toward holiness. By consecrating ourselves to Mary, we essentially give our full permission to Our Lady to do her work in us and form us into great saints.

Through the teachings of St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. John Paul II, we learn how their deep love for Mary had influenced and directed their lives into an amazing relationship with Jesus through Mary. For each of the 33 days of the retreat I watched a daily reflection online conducted by the Marian Missionaries of Divine Mercy which corresponded to a reading as presented in the book 33 Days to Morning Glory by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC. The readings were structured in a four week format with each week devoted to one of the four saints mentioned above.

Upon completion of the retreat, on the Feast of the Annunciation, all participants joined together in prayer and recitation of the Prayer of Consecration. However, this journey does not end here. We can renew our consecration daily in prayer and with an attitude that we can and should do everything through our devotion to Mary. The retreat helped to transform and strengthen my relationship with Our Lady as I now entrust to her all that is in my heart knowing she will bring all of that and more to her Son.

Participants started their journey on February 21st and consecrated on March 25th the feast of the Annunciation.

easter giving

Easter is a time so many parishioners give generous gifts to the parish. Please remember our parish again this year in spite of not being able to attend Mass. Our collections are down by 60%, and we are struggling to meet our expenses.

Jesus was in the neighborhood

Tina Grant

During the Coronavirus Crisis, St. Lawrence Parish is doing an amazing job in live streaming Masses, Seasons of Praise, Stations of the Cross, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and much more. Fr. Rich and his staff have creatively brought everything to us so we do not have to leave the safety of our homes. However, we missed the “presence” of Jesus Christ, but this past Saturday, Fr. Rich brought Jesus to us as well.

Fr. Rich proceeded in a white pickup truck through the community of Brewster. As Deacon Mark drove and handed out prayer cards with Sally Silvestro riding shotgun, Fr. Rich stood in the cab of the truck in full priest attire holding the monstrance containing the body of Jesus Christ. Julie Noce, his Assistant led the procession and Jeff Mazzone whose beautiful voice leads us in song at Seasons of Praise, followed behind along with Judy McDermott from Sacred Heart. It was amazing. So many people stood in the rain, in their doorways and at the windows, waiting for Jesus to come to them. Janice Nastasi, a fellow parishioner and teacher at ECLC commented: “it brought tears to my eyes”.

Kathleen Casale-Bleakley after witnessing such an extraordinary gift said “While we are able to participate online every day which I am totally grateful for, today was the most beautiful. . . thank you with all my heart for bringing peace and love to us”. Lorraine Martucci said it gave her “peace” and Eileen McIlvenna said it gave her “hope”.

But perhaps the words that struck our heart chords the most came from a boy at Eagle Ridge, “He really is here! I knew he was coming”. Simple faith. As Jesus said, “Let the children come to me”.

While we will not know how long this crisis will last and where it will lead each one of us, nothing will deter us from practicing our faith. As I watched Fr. Rich stand in the rain with Alan Patrie holding an umbrella over his head, I realized he and so many others would do everything they could to bring strength to us in this difficult time and we need to continue to pray. Fr. Rich is leading us spiritually through this crisis. As we face the weeks and months ahead with uncertainty, let us keep in our heart what is certain. . . Jesus is with us every step of the way. He will not abandon us. As you bow your head tonight and thank the Lord for all your blessings, thank him also for the wonderful parish we are part of and how our faith will give us the strength to withstand the storm. And remember, God is Good All the Time and All the Time God is Good.
