"Prayer makes your heart bigger, until it is capable of containing the gift of God himself." St. Teresa of Calcutta

The Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within Your wounds hide me.
Separated from You let me never be.
From the evil one protect me.
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to You bid me.
That with Your saints and angels, I may be praising You forever and ever.
Amen.

Diocesan Mass Guidelines

The Catholic Diocese of Spokane has asked parishes to develop infection control protocols for their gatherings that incorporate:

- "Watching Distance" – Individuals should observe physical distancing by maintaining no less than six feet between people not of their household.
- "Wearing Masks" – Parishioners are required to wear face coverings whenever they are indoors for Mass, excepting the reception of Holy Communion. A mask is not required if it cannot be worn reliably or if it aggravates breathing difficulty or another health risk. Priests are instructed to wear masks during distribution of Holy Communion.
- "Washing Hands" – Hand washing and the use of hand sanitizer upon entering the church / gathering space is strongly encouraged.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SPOKANE

Eucharistic Saint of the Month St. Thomas Aquinas

Thomas Aquinas (1225 - 1274) was an Italian Dominican friar, philosopher, Catholic priest, and Doctor of the Church. He is considered one of the Catholic Church's greatest theologians. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. He stopped work on it after celebrating Mass on December 6, 1273. When asked why he stopped writing, he replied, "I cannot go on All that I have written seem to me like so much straw compared to what I have seen and what has been revealed to me." His feast is celebrated January 28.
