The Organ Music in Today's Liturgy

Today's readings have an overlap with some of the readings that are used in the liturgy for the Sacrament of Matrimony. Therefore, I have selected prelude and postlude music from among organ repertoire that is often heard at weddings. The prelude is gently flowing and serene, a setting of the Welsh hymn tune "Rhosymedre" by English composer Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), and often used for preludes at weddings. The postlude is the exuberant transcription of "Trumpet Voluntary," by another English composer—John Stanley (1712-1786). Trumpet tunes, utilizing the trumpet stop on the organ in opposition to a plenum registration, are ubiquitous at weddings for both processions and recessions.

Our Lady of the Rosary

Feast Day ~ October 7

The Church celebrates the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7. On this day, we celebrate the Holy League's defeat of the Ottoman Empire in the Battle of Lepanto on October 7, 1571. Even though the Turkish forces were very powerful, the Christians won due to the intercession of Mary and the prayer of the Most Holy Rosary.
