Oh God, Who wish all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of Your Truth:

send, we beg You, laborers into Your harvest, and grant them grace to speak Your word with all boldness; so that Your word may spread and be glorified, and all nations may know You, the only God, and Him Whom You have sent,

Jesus Christ Your Son, Our Lord, Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

This drive is sponsored by the Catholic Charities/"PREPARES" Traveling Crib program which will disperse our collected items at its community baby shower held in July. Let us celebrate and support families who have chosen life.

For a list of needed items, please refer to the bulletin boards in the vestibule and the transept entrances.

Please place your items in the Pac N' Play located in the vestibule under the choir stairs.

The Organ Music in Today's Liturgy

Mother's Day is not a liturgical observance, but because the month of May is dedicated to our Blessed Mother, some of the preludes and postludes this month will have a Marian theme, such as today's prelude and postlude. The prelude, "Prière à Notre-Dame" ("Prayer to Our Lady") was composed by French organist Léon Boëllmann (1862-1897), and is the third piece in his famous Suite Gothique. The introspective melody that begins and ends the piece expresses a fervent and prayerful devotion, whereas the middle section expresses the urgency and angst that sometimes accompanies prayer. The postlude, by American organist Everett Titcomb (1884-1968), is his joyful Toccata, based on the Gregorian chant Salve Regina (Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy), the prayer that ends the Rosary. If you would like to know more, please ask Joseph Schubert, the organist.

~ Blessing for Mothers ~

Loving God, we thank you for the love of the mothers you have given us.

Bless them with strength to continue to care for their children, with the same bold, selflessness Mary showed Jesus.

Help them feel our gratitude and truly know their impact.

May we honor them today and on all days as vessels of Your love.

In Your name we pray.

Amen.
