Questions &
Answers*

How much is tuition?

1. Full-Time tuition: 6 classes a semester for the whole year
$5,740
2. By semester: 6 classes for one semester
$3,000
3. Per class (less than 6 classes a semester)
$500 per class

What is covered by tuition?

- Up to 6 classes per semester
 - Classes are with a "live" teacher (synchronous).
 - Each subject area has a different teacher, so each student may have 6 teachers.
- Academic support from teachers
 - Students and parents can message teachers 24/7.
 - Teachers respond within 24 hours.
- The online learning platform
 - This is the "digital classroom" where teachers and students communicate, view lesson and submit assignments.

What is covered by tuition? (cont'd)

- The Student Information System
 - This is the digital system for keeping student grades and records. Parents can access assignments & grades.
- Online learning resources & digital texts
 - There are some novels for English courses that students may need to purchase. All other learning materials are included.
- Digital access to a priest & academic counselor

What's not covered by tuition?

- Student laptop, desktop or digital device
- Home internet connection
- $50 fee for FACTS Tuition Management
 - This is the system we use to process tuition payments and financial aid applications.
 - FACTS may charge an additional fee depending on the tuition payment plan you select.

What about financial aid?

YES!! Financial-aid is available.

- Families complete an application through FACTS.
- Aid will be awarded first to those who submit complete applications by July 22, 2022.
- Complete applications received after this will still be considered, but less aid may be available.
- Families with multiple students receive a $1,000 discount per student in addition to any aid award.

How does tuition compare?

We looked at 10, in-person high schools within 2 hours of Madison, (from Dubuque, IA in the west to Oshkosh in the north and Waukesha & Milwaukee in the east.)

The average tuition of these schools for 2022-23 is:

$12,149

Transportation (gas, maintenance, and time) are additional costs of in-person high schools.

Isn't homeschooling curriculum much less?

Yes. Catholic homeschool curriculum programs charge an average of $1,000 a year.

This is ONLY for materials and lessons plans. There are NO teachers or support because the parents are the teachers.

What about other Catholic online options?

Tuition for Kolbe Academy is slightly less at $5,449. However, it offers a classical curriculum only. Blessed Carlo Acutis is not classical and offers many more courses such as:

- Chinese, German, American Sign Language
- Over 15 Advanced Placement (AP) courses
- Over 70 elective courses including: accounting, aeronautics, web design, business law, career planning, construction, cybersecurity, early childhood education, engineering and dozens more
