Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

Each year, on November 9th, the Catholic Church throughout the world celebrates the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. Most Catholics think of St. Peter's as the pope's main church, but they are wrong. St. John Lateran is the pope's church, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome where the Bishop of Rome presides.

The first basilica on the site was built in the fourth century when Constantine donated land he had received from the wealthy Lateran family. That structure and its successors suffered fire, earthquake and the ravages of war, but the Lateran remained the church where popes were consecrated until the popes returned from Avignon in the 14th century to find the church and the adjoining palace in ruins.

Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646. One of Rome's most imposing churches, the Lateran's towering facade is crowned with 15 colossal statues of Christ, John the Baptist, John the Evangelist and 12 doctors of the Church. Beneath its high altar rest the remains of the small wooden table on which tradition holds St. Peter himself celebrated Mass.

This anniversary is a feast for the Church. The dedication of a church is a feast for all its parishioners. In a sense, St. John Lateran is the parish church of all Catholics, because it is the pope's cathedral. This church is the spiritual home of the people who are the Church.

A quote from St. Augustine helps us understand the spiritual significance of this feast: What was done here, as these walls were rising, is reproduced when we bring together those who believe in Christ. For, by believing they are hewn out, as it were, from mountains and forests, like stones and timber; but by catechizing, baptism and instruction they are, as it were, shaped, squared and planed by the hands of the workers and artisans. Nevertheless, they do not make a house for the Lord until they are fitted together through love.

STRENGTHEN YOUR MARRIAGE

An excellent marriage retreat based on the Beatitudes in the Bible will be offered at St. Mary's Church in Fosston on Saturday, November 22nd. The retreat begins at 8:15am and ends with Mass at 5pm (which is the Mass for the weekend). I can personally attest to the value of this day long retreat. The presenters are good friends of mine, Dr. Mark and Julie Krejci of Moorhead. Please consider this great opportunity right in our own backyard to strengthen your marriage.

COURAGE

“Courage” is a Catholic apostolic outreach to persons with same sex attraction and grew out of a desire for guidance by Catholics needing support to live an authentic Catholic life. Check out the website at Couragerc.org or call 701-356-7960. For an excellent explanation of Catholic teaching on the issue of same sex attraction and marriage check out whatisthethirdway.com

START THINKING “LENT”

The weekend of Feb.26 through March 1 Fr. Don will be the spiritual director for a Men’s Cursillo Weekend. Cursillo is a Thursday night to Sunday afternoon gathering of men (women’s weekend is set for March 19-22). The word “Cursillo” is Spanish for “short course.” It is pronounced KER-SEE-O. During the weekend, fifteen talks are given which range from the true meaning of grace to the role of the sacraments and prayer in our life. It is a relaxing weekend when you can simply put your “worldly” mind on pause and soak in great talks, great food and plenty of fellowship! Let Christ take your worries for a few days and let him refresh you. In prayer, ask him if he wants you there! For more information on either the men’s or women’s weekend, contact Fr. Don.

Liturgical Ministers are needed for the Mass of Remembrance and Hope on November 18, and on Thanksgiving Day. Sign-up sheets are available in the narthex. If you plan to attend either of these special Masses, we would love your help. Thanks!

St. Philip's Church Fall Festival and Dinner

Thank you!

I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers.

ò Ephesians 1:16

The 2014 St. Philip's Fall Festival was a wonderful parish event! Good food, fun activities, nice weather, and a sense of community made the day memorable. The event was successful in that we raised $20,581 for St. Philip's Parish. The Silent Auction raised $8,440, the Raffle: $2,052. The Country Boutique: $1,280, Bake Sale: $1,292, Kid's Carnival: $1,292, Dinner: $1,416, Monetary Donations: $5,283 and lastly, the Pumpkin Patch raised $77.

Whether you donated money or items, sold raffle tickets, wrapped silent auction baskets, worked in the kitchen, dining room, kids carnival and cake walk, bake sale, Country Boutique, BINGO, pumpkin wagon, set up or clean up (a VERY big chore) you were essential to the Fall Festival's success.

As the Events Coordinator at St. Philip's I want to thank everyone who helped with and attended this event. Success of the Fall Festival would not be possible without the involvement and support of the entire parish.

Thank you to Heather Lucas, Fall Festival co-chair. Special thanks to Susan Gorski who was instrumental in organizing the effort in putting together the beautiful gift baskets we were able to display, as well as the time and energy she spent on the Silent Auction in creating and tracking the bid sheets. Thank you to Jennifer Leisenheimer for helping to create the bid sheets. Thank you to Shannon Schmitt for taking on the effort to solicit and obtain donations from area businesses. Thank you, as well, to Claude Sand for creating the spread sheet and tracking the raffle ticket sales. Thank you to Maryhelen Chadwick for setting up and monitoring Bingo. Thank you to Joe Bofferding and his crew who did the preparing and cooking the delicious roast pork dinner that we served to over 550 people. A tremendous thank you to Gina Mykleseth, Maggie McCalip and Karen Johnson for working so tirelessly in the dining room and server. Thank you to Carol Rettinger and the 8th grade students for assisting in serving and clearing tables during our dinner. Thank you to Trudi Peterson and her crew for their commitment to the Kid's Carnival and Cake Walk -- I know that there is a tremendous amount of work involved. Thank you to the St. Philip's School teachers for manning the pumpkin wagon, and farmers market. Thank you to Joann Gardner and her team for the time and commitment in setting up the Country Boutique. As usual, the boutique was wonderful. To Rosemary Petersen, Barb Passeri, and St. Jude's Circle thank you for all of your time and dedication to the success of the Bake Sale. Last but not least, thank you to the Parish Staff and Maintenance Staff for your dedication and commitment to the success of the Fall Festival.

A heartfelt thank you to the countless enthusiastic and energetic individuals who give so generously of their time, talent, and treasure for the benefit of our Parish.

Thanks again! See you next fall.

In Christ,
Sue Lucas
