14th Sunday greetings,

In our gospel this weekend Jesus has problems with family and relatives. They thought they knew Him and were unable to get beyond their preconceived ideas as to how He should act and function when around them. There are times in our lives when someone close to us has accomplished something completely unexpected. Our reaction will range from congratulations to utter disbelief.

Do you remember the ñBritainô's Got Talentò show when the middle-aged woman Susan Boyle walked on stage and the audience and judges laughed due to her appearance? Then she blew their minds as she sang with a voice filled with volume, feeling and power. Later comments were: ñbeauty is always withiné I never expected such a performance from such a ladyòè

I think about my son whose whole outlook on life changed when his daughter was born. I am still shocked when I observe how well he interacts with her and how he is so protective, just like one would desire every parent should be. The tendency to judge others unfairly is not newé it happened to Jesus it can happen to us and we can also be the ones who judge others unfairlyé the impact on Jesus was that He was unable to perform mighty deeds there. What is the impact of our judgment on others? Do we hold them back for achieving all they are capable of achieving.

Here is a random thought to contemplate and maybe put into action: Do you tend to talk more than listen? Just for today, try to listen to your spouse as much as you talk to them.

Do you remember the commercial that used the phrase: ñThe pause that refreshesò Since it is summer and we take time to be refreshed, I was visiting someone who offered a ñcold oneò to this priest and then shared this story: A mother was reading a book about animals to her 3 year old daughter. Mother: "What does the cow say?" Child: "Moo!" Mother: "Great! What does the cat say?" Child: "Meow." Mother: "And what does the pig say?" Child: "Oink, Oink." Mother: "Oh, you're so smart! What does the frog say?" And this wide-eyed little 3 year-old looked up at her mother and in her deepest voice replied, "Bud-wei-ser".

I am off on a quick trip to Notre Dame for a conference for pastors with schools. I plan to return late Friday evening. Be good, be safe, be kind, be generous, behave while I am gone, and remember if that is not possible you are invited to tell me about in the sacrament of reconciliation when I returné

Blessings and peace, Fr. Chuck

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Informational Meeting

Because of the increasing number of people in need in the Diocese of Crookston the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) is launching “Invitation to Serve,” a campaign to recruit new members in Bemidji.

The largest social assistance organization in the world, SVdP is a Catholic lay organization of volunteers who come together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those in need and living in poverty. In the United States, the organization has some 172,000 members and is active in about 4,600 communities.

The goal of Invitation to Serve is to “invite caring people to give hope to those without hope by supplying food, clothing, help with rent, transportation or utility costs, and even love.”

Are you looking for ways to experience God? SVdP invites you to share in their ministry of serving people living in poverty. A representative from SVdP will speak at St. Philip's on Monday, July 6. If you are interested in becoming active in this ministry, please plan on attending an informational meeting:
