Epiphany Greetings,

January 3, 2016

The Kings are showing up to see Jesus. God uses this Gospel to remind us that He is open to all and came into the world for all. This is the point where science and the Divine meet. The kings used science to seek the Divine and the answer to their search was the infant Jesus. They were invited into the Jewish community and welcomed even though they were strangers. The United States Bishops remind us this is Immigration Sunday and we are asked to pray for a resolution that is fair to all regarding the problems presented by our current immigration system.

Immigration is more than about those who want to enter our country. It concerns refugees from conflict, which can be economic, religious, or racial. It involves children. It involves human trafficking victims. The United Nations report for 2012 states: Nearly 1.5 million victims are currently laboring in conditions of forced labor, sexual exploitation and servitude in the United States, Canada and developed countries of the EU. Fifty five percent of forced labor victims are women and girls, as are 98 percent of sex trafficking victims.

Traffickers lure vulnerable men, women and children with false promises of good jobs, an education, economic security and even love. Once lured, the traffickers are able to keep their victims from seeking help by confiscating identification documents, using threats of violence against the victim or their family, as well as subjecting the victim to physical, psychological and/or sexual abuse. As a faith community we need to pray and discuss how we would like to address the social injustice in the treatment of immigrants, refugees, and human trafficking.

It is 2016! Happy New Year! People sometimes think it is fate, it is luck, and it is something outside of ourselves that will decide how things will go during the year. I have learned over the years it is about my attitude and my way of opening myself to God and others that makes a difference in how my year goes forward.

We can feel we are in an impossible situation, the pressure is strong and stress levels are high. When that scenario is in action in my life I have found that all I have to do is open myself up to God and others. I need to step back from my pride, admit I cannot carry the load myself and let others help me. In prayer to ask God to open my eyes to His plan.

A simple prayer: ñLord, help me to hear your voice, soften my heart so I can be responsive to your word. It is also a good thing to acknowledge to God that we seek His peace, the peace of God. I know the decision is the right one when I take it to prayer, not once but several times, then I spend some time in the silence of God's presence and I let His peace enter my heart. How do I know the decision is right? It is a peaceful decision with no unrest or second guessing taking place in my heart.

God is providential. He wants to guide us, nurture us, and He wants us to be happy. He loves us and still is willing to let us call the shots. Just like a parent cannot make a child do everything their way: God will not make us do it His way. But He adjusts and continually offers His love and guidance. We just have to adjust our attitude and be open to Him. Here is the great difficulty: sometimes we chose not to listen, not to be open to His voice.

As we start a New Year: I am thankful for your generosity of time, talent, & treasure. Thank You to our parishioners who repeatedly step forward and help by using their gifts and talents to assist others in so many ways. It is also a sign of a giving nature when we participate in word, song and action during the liturgies. Thank you for picking up a hymnal and being part of the celebration of God: with and for His people.

May God bless you during the New Year! May the peace of Christ be with you!

Jesus loves you and so do I. ~Fr Chuck

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS

Parents or prospective parents who wish to present a child for Baptism are asked to attend a baptism preparation class.

The next session will be on February 7th. Please call the Parish Office at 444-4262 to register, or for more information.

The St. Philip's Catholic Community welcomes through the waters of baptism, Naomi Rose Christiansen, daughter of Kadie & Mark Christiansen. May she be filled with the Holy Spirit!

St. Philip's extends condolences to the family of Herb South, who passed away on December 25. May he find rest and peace, & may his family find comfort in God's love.

THOUGHTS ON MERCY...

"Frequently she (the Church) has condemned them (past errors) with the greatest severity. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity. She considers that she meets the needs of the present day by demonstrating the validity of her teachings rather than by condemnations..."

~ St. John XXIII

Save the Date: Jennifer Fulwiler will be speaking at the Real Presence Radio Banquet in Fargo on Mon., Feb. 29th, 2016. Watch your bulletin for more information or call 701-795-0122 for more details.

Liturgical Minister Trainings

Eucharistic Minister, greeter, usher, and lector trainings are just around the corner, and if you have thought about getting involved in these ministries, it is time to get trained! We need more volunteers at each Mass, and we could especially use a few more volunteers at the 5:30 PM and 7:30 AM Masses in all ministries. If you are interested in helping, please contact Aana Freihammer (218-444-4262) or afreihammer@stphilipsbemidji.org.
