From the desk of Fr. Bryan

October 6, 2019

One of the questions I hear frequently: "How much do priests pray every day?" This is kind of a tricky question because each priest has different habits of prayer, so there isn't going to be one consistent answer to the question. There is, however, a "minimum" amount of prayer, if we could call it that, required for each priest. If that required minimum isn't reached each day, then that priest is actually committing a sin.

Amazingly enough, each priest isn't required to offer Mass each and every day. Offering Mass every day is "recommended earnestly since, even if the faithful cannot be present, it is the act of Christ and the Church in which priests fulfill their principal function" (found in canon law 904). Still, it is not required. Here's what is required of each and every priest in terms of prayer and holiness of life, according to the Code of Canon Law (the laws that are used to govern the life of the Catholic Church):

In leading their lives, clerics are bound in a special way to pursue holiness since, having been consecrated to God by a new title in the reception of orders, they are dispensers of the mysteries of God in the service of His people. In order to be able to pursue this perfection: 1) they are first of all to fulfill faithfully and tirelessly the duties of the pastoral ministry; 2) they are to nourish their spiritual life from the two-fold table of Sacred Scripture and the Eucharist; therefore, priests are earnestly invited to offer the Eucharistic Sacrifice daily and deacons to participate in its offering daily; 3) priests and deacons aspiring to the presbyterate are obliged to carry out the Liturgy of the Hours daily according to the proper and approved liturgical books; permanent deacons, however, are to carry out the same to the extent defined by the conference of bishops; 4) they are equally bound to make time for spiritual retreats according to the precepts of particular law; 5) they are urged to engage in mental prayer regularly, to approach the sacrament of penance frequently, to honor the Virgin Mother of God with particular veneration, and to use other common and particular means of sanctification.

Each of these could be explained in detail, but here you can see the "bare minimum" of spiritual requirements for priests. Of those requirements, the only one that is, strictly speaking, required on a daily basis is the Liturgy of the Hours (number 3). LoTH is a structured way of prayer established by the Church. There are seven different "hours" for prayer: the Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Midmorning Prayer, Midday Prayer, Midafternoon Prayer, Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer. Priests are required to pray five of the hours: Office, Morning, one of the Day-time, Evening and Night Prayer. It might sound like a lot, but each one doesn't take a full hour. It's only that they are governed by the hours of the day. The time they take up ranges from five to fifteen minutes. They involve reading and reflecting on Psalms, some other Scripture readings, writings from Church Fathers and other saints, and some petitionary prayer. It's a great way to keep focused on God throughout the day, actually, and it provides a way to pray without having to come up with something new each time. There's also something unique about entering into a prayer that is taking place all around the world. In fact, the lay faithful are invited (not required) to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well. If you'd like to learn how, talk to Fr. Chuck or myself and we'd be happy to teach you.

May the Lord give you his peace!

-Fr. Bryan

“This Wondrous Love”

Be part of St. Philip’s Parish Renewal

The faith community of St. Philip’s will celebrate a five-day Parish Renewal experience October 6-10. The principal instruction of the Renewal will take place each evening in the church at 6:30 PM. The preacher for the Parish Renewal will be Fr. Lon Konold O.M.I., a member of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. The Missionary Oblates are a religious community of priests and brothers founded in 1816 by St. Eugene DeMazenod, who later became Bishop of Marseilles, France. The principal focus of their ministry is to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the poor, in every sense of that word. Today, over 5,000 members carry on their mission on every continent. The theme of the Parish Renewal will be “This Wondrous Love.” God’s Love for humanity leads through the mystery of the Cross, the healing of forgiveness, and the challenge of discipleship. All interested persons are invited to attend this Parish Renewal at St. Philip’s. For more information, please call the Parish Office at 218-444-4262.

Introducing Your Parish Mission Presenter

Fr. Lon V. Konold, OMI is a priest in the community called the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He is presently assigned to Christ the King Retreat Center in Buffalo, MN. He is originally from Minnesota and calls Minneapolis his home town.

Fr. Lon’s training for the priesthood has been in such varied places as Onamia, MN; Hastings, NE; Godfrey, IL; Omaha, NE; San Antonio, TX; as well as various workshops, seminars and sabbatical programs throughout the United States and Scandinavia over the years.

Fr. Lon made his perpetual profession of vows as a Missionary Oblate in March of 1976, and was ordained to the priesthood in June of 1977. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree (B.A.) from Creighton University in Omaha, NE and a Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.) from Oblate College of the Southwest in San Antonio, TX, specializing in Christology; Sacramental theology; Liturgical theology and praxis.

Upon Ordination, Fr. Lon served for 13 years in Scandinavia. One of the founders of the Oblate mission in Norway, during his ten years in that country he was a vicar of the parish in Stavanger for four years and pastor of the parish in Haugesund for six years. From Norway he was asked to move to Herlev, Denmark, serving as pastor, prison chaplain, and national chaplain for “Faith and Light”, founded in France for ministry with those with mental and physical disabilities.

Having returned to the United States in November of 1990, Fr. Lon first attended a renewal course in St. Louis, MO. He then ministered in a parish in St. Paul, MN while helping to organize the Oblate Preaching Team to conduct Parish Renewals (missions). He began that ministry in December of 1992, and remained on that Preaching Team until May of 1999. After 168 parish renewal missions, he was assigned to the preaching staff at Immaculata Retreat House in Willimantic, CT from August, 2000 until July, 2008.

Fr. Lon has been assigned to King’s House of Retreats in Buffalo, MN effective July, 2008, where he presently ministers as preacher and spiritual director.

Fr. Lon comes to the ministry of preaching with a cross-cultural background of many years, as well as extensive knowledge and experience in ecumenical ministry and study. Even his personal background is ecumenical, in that his father was from a Lutheran family and his mother was from a Catholic family, and many of his nine surviving siblings belong to various religious denominations or none at all.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH RENEWAL

Lord Jesus, we come to you as our parish prepares to begin its special time of renewal.

Open the hearts and minds of each one of so that we might receive your word with eager joy. Let this parish and its members be the “good ground” in which the Word of God will take a deep root and produce an abundant harvest of Christian living.

Help us to welcome into our parish community all of those who may feel distant from your loving care. May our witness of faith help them to find you once again.

Through the intercession of Mary, your mother and first disciple, help us to make this local community of disciples a “light shining on the mountaintop.” May this renewal strengthen our faith and help us in our desire to serve you until “your kingdom come and your will be done.”

We ask you this, confident that you are our Savior, and that you live and reign, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Amen.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

Why I Am Pro-Life...

I respect the sanctity of human life which begins at the moment of conception in the womb to the tomb.

- GOD is the author of life. (Genesis 1:1 "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.")
- HE knows the beginning. (Jeremiah 1:5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.")
- HE knows how it's going to end. (Isaiah 46:4 "Even to your old age I am He, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.")

Life is a beautiful and sacred gift from GOD which is freely given to be treasured and nurtured. Life is a fundamental right in GOD's natural order. (Genesis 1:31 "And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good.") Who am I to question the handiwork of GOD and the beauty of HIS creation?
