Insights from the desk of Fr. Michael Arey

May 2, 2021

As Catholics we often think of the month of May as the month of Mary. Some people wonder why Catholics give such homage to Mary and some even ask the question: Do Catholics worship Mary? In one sense yes, we do. People often lack a sufficient knowledge of words and their meaning. This can cause conflicts and difficulties in our discussions with people from another faith. Thankfully, our rich Catholic faith in accordance with the Holy Bible draws a clear distinction between the different ways we worship.

The Catholic Church believes that prayer and worship are distinct from each other; for Catholics prayer is not identical to worship, when we pray to Mary or the saints, we do not worship them in the exact way we worship God. When a Catholic prays to Mary or a saint we are asking them for their intercession or asking those in heaven to pray for us, like how we ask our friends and family to pray for us. This concept of asking our friends and family to pray for us or those in heaven to pray for us is deeply rooted in scripture. St. Paul in his epistle to Timothy urge Christians to pray for one another; "First of all, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions and thanksgiving be made for everyone" (1 Timothy 2:1). This teaching of St. Paul is the basis why we ask our friends and family to pray for us, especially the saints in heaven because the prayers of the righteous is powerful (James 5:16).

Catholicism and Protestantism have a different understanding of the word "worship". Protestants believe that worship automatically equates to adoration of God. Whereas Catholicism follows the biblical understanding of worship wherein it is a general term that have three distinct actions.

Latria – An act of adoration or worship due to God alone (this is what we do during the Holy Mass). (Exodus 20:1-5)

Hyperdulia – An act of respect/honor towards the Blessed Virgin Mary (Luke 1:48)

Dulia – An act of respect/honor towards the saints (Romans 13:7)

Even our Protestant friends in the past have used the term worship in a similar way. In the Anglican Church during a wedding ceremony, found in the 1552 Book of Common Prayer: "With this ring I thee wed: with my body I thee worship: and with all my worldly goods I thee endow."

The term "worship" being a general term itself is perfectly demonstrated in the Old Testament in the book of Daniel 2:46 as we read.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell down and worshiped Daniel and ordered sacrifice and incense offered to him.

The king "fell down and worshiped" Daniel. Why did the prophet Daniel accept the homage done to him by the king? The prophet Daniel perfectly understands that what the king is doing is not "Latria" or adoration due to God alone, but an act of veneration or respect/honor.

This is exactly what Catholics are doing towards Mary and the saints, we are not worshipping them in the exact way we worship God. We are rendering veneration or an act of respect/honor towards Mary. Holy Mary Mother of God, pray for us!

Holy Land Crafts back to St. Philip's

Representatives from Catholic Bethlehem Christian Families will be with us the weekend of May 8/9 to ask for your help and blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. These families have relied on the income from their religious hand carved olive wood artifacts to tourists. So, we have come the USA to try help support these families by bringing their artifacts here to sell. All the proceeds from sales will be sent back to the families of the Holy Land so that they may be able to keep their homes and provide for their families. The past few years have been very tough for the Christian families, and this is the only source of income for them.

Come by to browse these beautiful items after all Masses on May 8/9 and maybe take home a piece of the Holy Land.
