Please call the Parish Office for information.

Last year we kicked off the Eucharistic Revival throughout the diocese but now we enter the second phase of the revival which begins the Parish Year. The Parish Year will incorporate various teachings on the Eucharist, greater emphasis on sacred silence during Holy Mass, and various opportunities to increase our devotion to our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist. With this being said, our parish will offer Eucharistic Adoration one Saturday a month at 9:00 a.m. with Exposition and Benediction in the Church. Our first Holy Hour will be Saturday, August 19th from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. We will provide reminders every month as to when the future Holy Hours will take place. Every Holy Hour will include a monthly prayer intention and our prayer intention for August will be for all students and teachers and all who work in schools, both private and public schools, as well as homeschoolers and their parents – all grades and every level of education will be included in our prayers. These monthly Holy Hours will also provide an opportunity to introduce Eucharistic Adoration to those who are not familiar with this devotion. For those who are not familiar with or need some advice regarding adoration, here are some ways to help you enter into prayer before the Blessed Sacrament:

The first twenty minutes before our Lord in the Eucharist is a sacred time of intimacy between us and him. It is a time to just be present to our God. In the words of a devout peasant in the parish of St. John Vianney, it is a time when "I look at him and he looks at me" (see CCC 2715). Our prayer before the Eucharist is a time when we lean on Jesus, like John did at the Last Supper, and allow his heart to speak to ours. The episcopal motto of St. John Henry Newman was cor ad cor loquitur (heart speaks to heart). We begin to grow in our "interior knowledge of the Lord" as we contemplate His words, His life, and His Real Presence before us. Here is the zone into which we are drawn in the first third of our Holy Hour, where our heart speaks to His. It is also a time when we listen to Him and allow Him to speak to us. This is a time when we can tell Him everything about how we are and how we feel. It is a time to tell Him about our day and to ask His help in ways in which we need it. Above all, it is a time to thank the Lord for His presence and action in our lives and to adore him for His goodness, truth, and mercy. It is also an opportunity to present to Him the things we don't understand, our sins, failings, and the worries that burden us. In these twenty minutes of our Holy Hour, we bask in the light of His love that never fails us.

The second twenty minutes can be a time when we intercede for all the people we know and who are part of our lives. At this stage of our prayer, we bring to the Lord all who have asked us to pray for them, our families and friends both living and dead. In this time, we pray for all we have met in the past day or week, the conversations we had, the things we have said and done. Often during this time in the Holy Hour, some person will arise in our minds who we feel the Lord is calling us to pray for, reach out to, contact, or visit. It is also a time to focus on what lies ahead—our next appointment, our next challenge, or perhaps a courageous conversation we need to have with someone to clear the air. In this time of prayer, our hearts are reminded that our call is to love others in Christ's name, and that the same Lord before us in the Eucharist is the same Lord present in everyone, especially in the least of his brothers and sisters.

The final twenty minutes can be a time when we pray for the intention of the month, again our prayer intention for August is for all those involved in education. There are many ways of praying and many ways of making a Holy Hour, for "the Spirit blows where it wills" (John 3:8). But sometimes we need a little guidance that helps us to focus.

In Christ,
Fr. Michael

"...then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.'"
~Matthew 17:5

When Peter, James and John heard this they immediately fell prostrate to the ground and they "were very much afraid." We, too, may respond the same way when we hear God's voice. How many times do you become fearful when invited to participate more fully in the life of the Church? Or, when someone says something negative about the Church, are you afraid to respond? Remember, we too, are beloved sons and daughters of God; Jesus is there to help us, but we need to listen.

Carmelite Corner

Lay Carmelites of The Most Pure Heart of Mary

Lay Carmelites recognize valid spiritual values as guides. These values accompany them as they become contemplative while remaining active in a world that is even more complex and demanding as ever. At the same time, the world is searching desperately for spiritual values. Lay people must be living the Carmelite charism in truth and spirit and are open to the Holy Spirit's works. This will lead to a new charismatic interpretation of their lay nature, to a fully co-responsible share the task of evangelization and in the ministry of Carmel. In this way Carmelites Tertiaries, (third order), become fully members of the Carmelite family.

A few weeks ago The Lay Carmelites handed out scapulars after the weekend Masses. If you would like to have your scapular blessed, Fr. Bill is available to do so.

The next open meeting of the St. Philip's Lay Carmelites is Tues, August 22 at 5 PM in the St. Elizabeth Rm. For more information, call Pat Sturk at 218-398-0814.
