Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THINGS ABOVE FROM FR. BILOT

In today's American culture, when someone hears the word "retreat" one may think of a business trip where the group of employees come together to bond, to create alliances and working relationships in hopes of furthering the mission of the company. The relationships formed are not necessarily to create community but to support the bottom line.

Before the United States existed, for centuries the word "retreat" was referenced. A retreat, in the context for which I am using it is actually the third definition in the good ole' Webster dictionary. It says – retreat: "a period of group withdrawal for prayer, meditation, study, or instruction under a director." Thus it is easy to see how a corporation or business can also use the word to define an activity it demands of its employees. The business retreat is not used to forge relationships that lead to our relationship with Jesus. Can you imagine if a company retreat was formed to develop relationships to further the mission of the Kingdom?

Since the time of Jesus and the keys given to Peter to form the Catholic Church people have gone on retreat, modeling the time of solitude after Jesus who went away by himself to be one with the Father. Thus for centuries men and women – priests, religious and lay have stepped out of the normal routine, like Jesus, to take time to deepen their relationship with God. The goal of the retreat is to forge a deeper and beautiful bond with Jesus Christ, His Mother Mary and the Saints.

Canon Law of the Catholic Church under the section of priestly ministry states that a priest should take a yearly retreat. The Church in its wisdom knows that even though a priest is asked to do a Holy Hour each day, pray 5 of the 7 hours of the Breviary and daily Mass, the time away and alone with Jesus allows for a quality relationship to deepen, allowing the Holy Spirit to renew us, challenge us and as I put it "fill me up" so that I can be a better servant of the Lord.

A couple of weeks ago I forged into the "desert" (retreat) to step back from active ministry to spend time with the Lord. I went to the Monastery of the Holy Angels in Hanceville, AL. They have a clergy retreat center on the grounds of the Shrine. I enjoy the location, for it is out in the country and the retreat center is comfortable with a beautiful chapel. There is also the Shrine church that has daily exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a Lourdes shrine, and a river to sit by and ponder. Normally, I take a retreat after Easter but this year scheduling altered my plans. Being in Alabama in June was definitely warmer with 100% humidity.

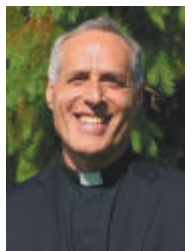

Retreat consists of daily Mass, three or four holy hours, walks, rosary and sleep. Time goes by quickly. I am grateful to have the opportunity to attend a yearly retreat to deepen my relationship with the Lord and hopefully, to be a better priest for His Church.

I was reminding my brother Rick, on Father's Day, that 29 years ago, on a Saturday morning, he spent three hours in Church, experiencing his brother (me) being ordained a Catholic priest. (That was probably the longest he and the rest of my family ever spent in church at one time!!) He and I just wonder how the years could pass so quickly. We were actually talking about this at his daughter's home, who is now married with two children. She was two years old when I was ordained!

I am grateful to be a priest. It is a blessed life. And because of the priesthood I am able to be here at St. Paul following in a historical lineage of priests who have served over the past century. Please pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Thank you for your prayers and support.
You are the best!

With gratitude,
Fr. Jim Bilot

KIDS CORNER

READ THE GOSPEL AND COLOR THE IMAGE.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

In today's Gospel reading, Jairus asked Jesus to come to his house. The daughter of Jairus was dying, and he knew Jesus could make her well again. While they were walking to his house, she died. Did Jesus give up? No way! Jesus told Jairus not to be afraid, but to keep believing that Jesus could help her. Jesus was even stronger than death. He walked into the house, held her hand, and told her to get up. Jesus admired the faith Jairus had.

PRAYER

Dear God, you are even stronger than death. Help me to have faith in you like Jairus had. Amen.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Jairus knew that Jesus could help him. Write down three things that you are afraid of, and ask God to help you.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

The Vocation Committee recognizes
Fr. Jim Bilot on the 29th anniversary of his ordination (June 27)

and Sr. Barbara Zimmer, IHM on the anniversary of her vows (June 29)

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them.

An introduction to inspirational information

Title: I Believe in Love
Category: Sainly Wisdom
Timeframe: © 1969
Density: light
Pages: 280

In this book Fr. D'Elbee presents the spirituality of St. Therese of Lisieux in a simple and profound manner. An excerpt: p189-190

Listen to her words: 'A single mission would not be enough for me. I would like at the same time to announce the gospel on the five continents and unto the most remote islands. I would like to be a missionary, not only for a few years, but I would like to have been one from the creation of the world until the end of time.'

Give yourself without counting the cost, in an immense love for the Holy Church, born of the Blood and the water flowing from the wound in the Heart of Jesus...

You will find unexpected joys in this active apostolate where you will not notice your pain, where you will not heed your fatigue and repugnance, where you will have forgotten yourself.

It will be a gain for you, a fruitful experience, to adapt yourself to various situations, to various feelings, to the joys and pains of others.

WITH GRATITUDE FOR AFRICAN-AMERICAN CATHOLICS

Michigan Catholic Conference

United States history includes a wealth of inspirational African-American men and women.

Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Tubman, Booker T. Washington, Rosa Parks, Jackie Robinson, and Martin Luther King Jr. are well known examples in the fight for equality and justice.

There are also many individuals in the Catholic tradition who have contributed significantly to racial equality and improving civic life in American communities. Henriette Delille, a free woman of color in the 1800s, created a religious order to serve those who were enslaved. Fr. Augustus Tolton, he himself a former slave, faced hostility and discrimination during his own journey into the priesthood. Mother Mary Lange, the founder of the Oblate Sisters of Providence, created a free school in her home for African-American children since one was not otherwise available. For today's generation, these Black men and women demonstrate the importance of perseverance and hope amid intolerance and ignorance.

The Catholic Church strongly condemns racism. It is a sin against the dignity of the human person and has no place in the Church. According to the U.S. bishops, racism arises when:

"Either consciously or unconsciously—a person holds that his or her own race or ethnicity is superior, and therefore judges persons of other races or ethnicities as inferior and unworthy of equal regard. When this conviction or attitude leads individuals or groups to exclude, ridicule, mistreat, or unjustly discriminate against persons on the basis of their race or ethnicity, it is sinful...[it reveals] a failure to acknowledge the human dignity of the persons offended."

Sadly, racism has harmed individuals of every ethnicity in society, and it has been carried out by those of differing races. In particular, generational and institutional racism has plagued varying ethnicities, impacting Native American, Latino, and Black families who have especially felt the effects of personal and institutional prejudices. The lingering discrimination is clearly visible in various areas of society, including education, employment, criminal justice, and housing. Regrettably, violence and racist actions against Asian Americans are also on the rise these days.

In recent months, conversations about race and in-justice haven taken place across the nation. In particular, the murder of George Floyd in May 2020 and his words "I can't breathe" reverberated across America. Protests broke out nationwide shortly afterward, forcing communities to evaluate the status of race relations within the country. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops called the killing of Mr. Floyd "senseless and brutal, a sin that cries out to heaven for justice.

Although important strides toward equality have been made in years past, it is important to recognize the ongoing challenges facing the Black and broader minority communities today. In 2018, the Catholic bishops in the United States wrote in their pastoral letter Open Wide Our Hearts—The Enduring Call to Love, that "we all need to take responsibility for correcting the injustices of racism and healing the harms it has caused." It is impossible to address the full history of racism, particularly against the Black community, in one publication. Recognizing that reality, focus seeks to offer opportunities for reflection, ideas for advocacy action, stories of inspirational Black Catholics who enrich our faith, and additional resources to combat the ignorance and sin of racism.

WATCH

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the “rock” upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

Belated Father's Day Wishes for St. Joseph

Some of you may be aware that Pope Francis declared this year to be the year of St. Joseph. Devotion to Jesus's earthly father is actually relatively new within the life of the Church, but it has been rapidly on the rise in the past century or so. In the early church St. Joseph did not receive a lot of attention for two reasons. 1.) The great saints of the early Church were incredibly devoted to reading Scripture, and St. Joseph plays a very small role in the Scriptures. He is mentioned and his actions are recorded, but never does Scripture actually record any of his words – he has no lines in the Bible! 2.) Some figures throughout Church history have thought that in order to defend the doctrine of Mary's perpetual virginity it was necessary to portray Joseph as an old and feeble man. This wrong idea was supported by scenes from "false Gospels" – fantastical accounts of the life of Jesus written centuries after the fact which we now know to be completely made-up.

Devotion to the figure of St. Joseph first sprung up in Medieval and Post-Reformation times with such figures as St. Theresa of Avila. But even then, this devotion was mainly present only amongst a small number of religious persons; it did not really spread to the laity until the 19th and 20th centuries. One great popularizer of devotion to St. Joseph was actually the late and great Fulton Sheen, who protested strongly against the image of an old and infirm Joseph. He argued that the most fit spouse for the Mother of God was not someone who would preserve her virginity only because of the breakdown of his own body, but rather someone who was young and vigorous but would preserve Mary because of the willingness to sacrifice, the chastity, and the sanctity present in his own heart. Besides, Joseph had to be able to protect Mary, and to make several trips by foot to and from places such as Egypt and Bethlehem. Fulton Sheen's arguments have prevailed upon the Church, and today we picture Joseph as a robust man in his prime.

In 2020, a book called Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father was published by Fr. Donald Calloway. This book introduced many readers to the tradition that has sprung up around St. Joseph, and guided them in making a personal consecration to him. I read this book during the early months of COVID quarantining and I consecrated myself to St. Joseph on May 1st 2020, which was both my birthday and the feast of St. Joseph the Worker.

So, when Pope Francis declared 2021 to be the year of St. Joseph, it was really a culminating moment for the growth of the devotion to this great saint. God has a way of calling the attention of the Church to a particular doctrine or a particular saint at times when His providence thinks it is most appropriate to do so. It is quite reasonable, then, to think that St. Joseph has a unique role to play, and a unique lesson to teach, to our own contemporary times.

The Solemnity of St. Joseph falls on May 25th, which fell on a Friday during Lent this past year. But, according to Church law, a solemnity (the highest rank of feast on the Church's calendar) trumps a fasting day, and so for that particular Friday, even though it was Lent, we could eat meat! So naturally, at my seminary we celebrated the Feast-Day-of-Joseph-during-the-year-of-Joseph-on-a-Friday-in-Lent by throwing an enormous barbeque! Below is a picture of yours truly manning the grill!

Devotion to St. Joseph has come to mean a lot in my life during this past year. I feel like I have benefited greatly from his spiritual fatherhood even since I made my consecration to him. Therefore, you can imagine my horror when it was late in the day on Father's Day this past week and I realized that I had completely forgotten to make any sort of special prayer to St. Joseph! In fact, until that moment, I had not thought about it as being his special day at all! I rectified that error immediately, but it made me think: I bet I was not the only one who forgot about St. Joseph on Father's Day. So I wanted to issue a general reminder: St. Joseph is your spiritual father, and divine providence has appointed him as a uniquely powerful saint for our current times. We ought to take advantage of that and set aside some time to pray to our spiritual father and ask for his intercession. Men especially should do this, particularly those who are fathers themselves! You might even think about ordering that book I mentioned, you will learn a lot about St. Joseph and his miraculous appearances throughout history (like when he seems to have miraculously built a staircase for an order of nuns in New Mexico!), I promise I am not making commission on it, by the way. In any case, for anyone who forgot, like me, I am sure that St. Joseph would be very happy to receive some belated Happy Father's day wishes!

Learning How to Pray

Hello everyone, it is Jeremy Schupbach, the parish seminarian. I want to invite you to join me for the project that I am most excited about undertaking this summer, and that is a four-week study on how to pray. I have always been deeply passionate about the subject of prayer; it's how God broke into my life and confirmed the vocation of the priesthood in my heart. I am convinced that prayer is the missing puzzle-piece to our life as Christians. At times we have all felt like there is a disparity between the way we talk as Christians and the actual experience we have of our relationship with God. I suggest that prayer is the way to overcome that gap, the way that God wants to go beyond our heads and engage our hearts in a powerful and felt manner! But it isn't easy, and you may have tried before and given up, understandably so. I'd like to help you navigate the difficulties and experience the riches for yourself! Please consider joining me and giving prayer, and God, a chance to impact your life!

Details: The series will be held on the four Wednesdays of July: the 7th, the 14th, the 21st, and the 28th at 6:30 pm in the Canfield Center in the school. Each session will be one hour long, I will speak for about 45 minutes and then take time to answer questions. The talks will also be available live-streamed on the parish website.

No RSVP is needed, but if you could email me at jschupbach@stpaulonthelake.org and let me know you are coming, I would appreciate it!

Preserving a Legacy of Holiness, Beauty: St. Paul on the Lake Creates Historic Preservation Fund

St. Paul on the Lake Catholic Church has survived many crises since the church was dedicated in 1897. Throughout its remarkable history, this Grosse Pointe Farms parish has, time and again, rebuilt what was damaged and restored what was lost. Dedicated clergy and loyal parishioners devoted themselves to preserving St. Paul's historic and beautiful church campus.

St. Paul on the Lake,
1978 fire.

“It’s become clear that we need to plan for the long term if St. Paul’s is to preserve its beauty and historic character,” Fr. Jim said.

Angela Moloney, president of the Catholic Foundation of Michigan, said St. Paul’s contacted the Foundation to help create a preservation fund. “St. Paul’s is such a jewel; it’s our privilege to share in this effort.”

Ms. Moloney explained that one benefit of the endowment is that people can designate the fund in their wills, as well as make gifts during their lifetimes. Endowment funds are administered by the Foundation, which will make annual distributions to the parish, starting in 2022. All funds administered by the Catholic Foundation of Michigan are subject to moral and ethical screens to ensure that they are invested in a manner consistent with Church teaching.

Patrick Fabian, the parish’s Business Manager, noted that the fund will establish a stable source of funding for the preservation and upkeep of the historic buildings and grounds at St. Paul’s. “We have a responsibility to see that this church we love is cared for,” he said.

Monsignor Patrick Halfpenny, St. Paul’s pastor from 2003-2019, used to say that the church walls are soaked in prayer. That’s a legacy that St. Paul’s wants to preserve for the next 120 years and beyond.

SHOULD THE GOVERNMENT PAY FOR ABORTIONS

President Biden's budget which he sent to Congress mandates that the federal government pay for abortions.

For 45 years, the Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from being forced to pay for abortions. The Hyde Amendment has been signed into law every year since 1976, whether the Congress and the White House were led by Republicans or Democrats.

The Hyde Amendment has saved nearly 2.5 million babies and mothers in difficult circumstances from the tragedy of abortion.

An overwhelming majority of Americans, including low income and women of color who are most impacted by it, support the Hyde Amendment and laws that prevent government-funded abortion.

The United States Bishops, in the strongest possible terms, urge you to ensure that the Hyde Amendment and all similar life-saving appropriations riders remain in place during the 117th Congress and beyond.

Americans should not be forced to pay for the taking of innocent human life.

Please sacrifice and pray that we respect, protect and cherish human life from conception to natural death.

STEWARDSHIP, ONLINE GIVING AND CSA

This time last year the world was turned upside down due to COVID-19, but our parish ministries continued because so many people needed our help.

Recurring gifts helped sustain our parish in unprecedented times, and continue to be a vital source of support for ministries that are a lifeline to those in need in our community.

Life is returning to normal, but so many continue to depend on St. Paul on the Lake. The more people use eGiving, the stronger foundation we will have for ministries that bring hope in times of uncertainty.

We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet. You can set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/MI1011, or text 'Enroll' to 313-825-5778.

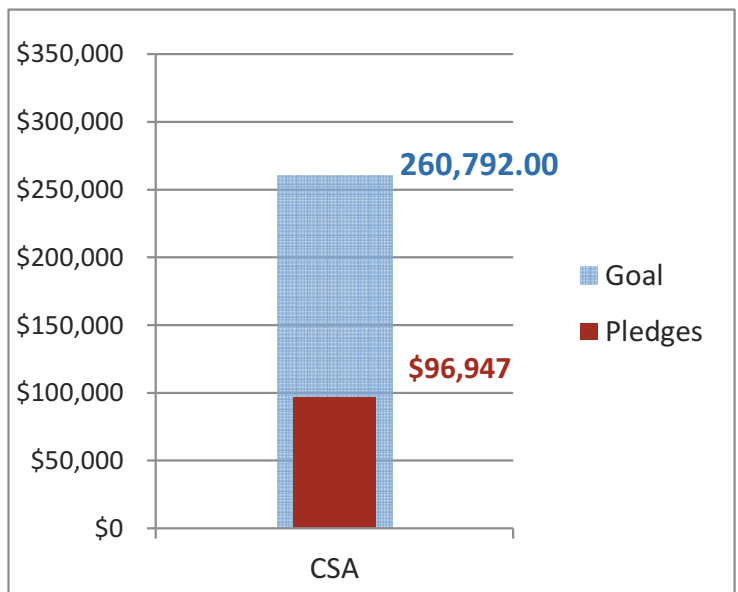

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

Text GIVE to 313-825-5778 to setup recurring or one-time donations to St. Paul on the Lake.

Thank you to those of you who have already mailed your CSA pledge cards as this ensures we Fuel the Mission to witness Christ. Fr. Jim Bilot is asking all parishioners to join him in contributing to this year's Catholic Services Appeal. If we all give, we will easily meet St. Paul on the Lake's 2021 CSA target of $260,792.00, which is our parish share of the support of more than 170 CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services.

If you have not already, you will receive your CSA pledge card and information directly from the AOD. Parishes are no longer responsible for mailing or receiving CSA information. Please call 888-331-8695 if you have any questions or concerns.

KNIGHTS NEWS

We are looking for a few good (Catholic) men! The St Paul on the Lake Council of the Knights is reaching out for assistance in our recruiting efforts. The pandemic has caused us difficulty in reaching out to prospective new members who are needed to meet the increased program demands. If you could mention the need for good Catholic men to join the Knights to your members it would be greatly appreciated.

As you may know the Knights' activities include:

- Monthly bottle/can drives supporting seminarians
- Tootsie Roll sales supporting the mentally disadvantaged
- Flash BBQs at St Aloysius to feed the hungry as part of Leave No Neighbor Behind
- Live Streaming of Mass
- March for Life and the Novena for Life
- Soccer Challenge for the youth
- Basketball Free Throw Contest for the youth
- Youth Spelling Bee
- "Keep Christ in Christmas" Poster Contest (a St Paul participant was a recent national award winner).

Until June 30, 2021,
membership in the Knights is FREE!

The Knights allow Catholic men to grow their faith while helping others and supporting the Church - and become better Catholics, husbands, and fathers! Please contact either me or any Knight that you for further information or to join!
