A Letter from the Cardinal

Dear friends in the Lord:

When we are told that the Lord calls each of us to be co-missionaries and co-evangelizers of the Church, as was St. Paul and the other apostles, we do not often realize how much mission work there is to be done in the United States. There is far more than you or I could ever imagine.

The annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection, taken up in parishes across the nation today enables the Church in the United States to provide desperately required pastoral, educational and spiritual assistance to some of the neediest of our brothers and sisters in the Lord. From the inner cities of the rural south to the deserts of the southwest to the wilderness of Alaska, grants from the annual appeal make it possible for the Church to assist our Black and Indian Catholic communities. Here in the archdiocese, we receive grants twice a year that are applied to Black parishes in Harlem and the Bronx, making it possible for them to serve their parishioners much more than they could on their own.

With this letter, I invite you to be as generous as you possibly can be in making a sacrificial offering to this crucially important and necessary ministry of the Church.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Friday following the Feast of Corpus Christi is the Feast of the Sacred Heart, followed the next day by the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

What a blessing it would be if in every Catholic home an image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary was set in a place of honor so that all in the home would be able to see it and be reminded of the love and mercy which flows generously from these two Hearts. Then, as we well know, love begets love, and the Catholic family is built of a firm foundation so that when the inevitable storms of life occur, they will not collapse but remain steadfast and strong in Faith, Hope and Charity.

Act of Consecration

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I consecrate myself and my whole family to you. We consecrate to you: our very being and all our life. All that we are. All that we have, and all that we love. To you we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls. To you we dedicate our home and our country. Mindful of this consecration, we now promise you to live the Christian way by the practice of Christian Virtues.

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, accept our humble confidence and this act of consecration by which we entrust ourselves and all our family to you. In you, we put all our hope and we shall never be disappointed.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
