Year of Mercy

Dear friends in the Lord:

On this 90th World Mission Sunday, October 23, 2016, our archdiocesan family joins our brothers and sisters around the world who will gather at the altar to celebrate, with great joy, our common vocation as missionaries. Our prayers and financial help, through the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, support the work of the Mission Church, its witness to Christ and service to the poor.

“Let us not close our hearts within our own particular concerns,
but let us open them to all of humanity.”

Message for World Mission Sunday, 2016

I echo these words of our Holy Father, asking you to open your hearts as you connect with World Mission Sunday in every corner of the globe...with the Americas, where catechists travel to remote areas to bring the Good News of God’s great love to families; with Europe, where new churches are being built to welcome faith communities, renewed after years of persecution; with Asia, where six million children receive an education from religious sisters in some sixteen thousand Church-administered elementary schools; with the Pacific Islands, where one thousand young men are preparing for the priesthood to bring the Lord’s healing, hope and peace to those in need; and with Africa, where those who are sick are provided with loving care at more than six thousand Catholic hospitals and small clinics.

Please be as generous as you can be to the appeal . We are all called to be missionaries, by service, prayer and financial support.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
