UPCOMING EVENT: Movie Night and Discussion

What: Annual Lenten Faith Sharing and Potluck: Movie Night and Discussion

When: Saturday, March 18 at 6:00pm

Where: Church of The Holy Spirit, 1969 Crompond Rd., Cortlandt Manor, NY 10567

It's our annual Lenten Faith Sharing and Potluck, with a twist! This year we'll host a movie night and discussion. The film: "The Way", starring Martin Sheen. Bring light snacks and appetizers to share instead of main courses, so we can nibble while we watch.

RSVP to CatholicinRealLife@gmail.com

Catholic in Real Life is a group for 30s and 40s Roman Catholics (married, single, divorced, with or without kids) living in Upper Westchester County and Putnam County, NY.

We started CiRL to answer the need for a faith-based, local community group because we hadn't found an established group that was geared toward our age range. We (the organizers) are parishioners of Church of the Holy Spirit in Cortlandt Manor (pastor: Fr. John DeBellis). While Holy Spirit is our home base, we serve and have members from various area parishes. Join us on our journey to explore what it means to practice our faith beyond Sunday Mass — in short, to become Catholic in Real Life!

In the Footsteps of Jesus

If you have been considering the October trip to the Holy Land that Fr. Backes of Pleasant Valley is planning, you might be interested in an Informational Meeting he is planning at St. Stan's on Sunday afternoon, March 12 at 1pm. Feel free to invite others to join you and bring your questions. Deacon George Albin of St. Gregory's in Garnerville will be addressing the topic of safety. Before his ordination, Deacon George was a Chief of Police for the Port Authority Police Dept. and also a member of the NYC Joint Terrorism Task Force and has seen the security there on his three trips to the Holy Land — twice as a pilgrim and once as a guest of the Israeli Security forces. His answer is, very simply, YES, it is safe and he will explain why. Call St. Stan's for directions. 635-1700
