2018 Thank You

Christmas in Millbrook is always a wonderful experience. I have been most grateful for the generosity and goodness of so many of our Parishioners and friends in the Community. Our Christmas Masses were offered with reverence and in beautiful surroundings. I am grateful to those who played and sang in our choirs and lifted our spirits with age old Christmas Carols and hymns that expressed the true meaning of the Christmas Season. I am always grateful for the dedicated volunteers who, throughout the year, serve as Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers and countless other acts of generosity and goodness. Our beautiful Church is made even more breathtaking at Christmas time! Thanks to Laura and Joe Warning, Donna and Tommy Bynes, Deirdre Houston, Fannie Manzi, Irene Wing, Edye MacDonald and Lawrence Clegg. Our Church is kept spotlessly clean by our dedicated maintenance man Glenn Hubbard and by an army of volunteers who, throughout the year, clean the Church each week. We are deeply grateful to all those who donated food and gifts for our Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets and the gifts to the residents of Greenbriar Nursing Home, Lutheran Care Nursing Home and Cardinal Hayes Home. May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph bless each of you with joy and peace this Holy Season.

With gratitude and Christmas blessings,
Msgr. Colacicco

A special thank you to all who contributed to the Christmas flowers and decorations in our Sanctuary:

Michael Sontheimer and Allen Funeral Home

Skip Ciferri, in memory of: Andrea Ciferri, Concetta and Rod Ciferri, Jr. and Judith Ciferri

Thank You from Cardinal Hayes Home

Dear Msgr. Colacicco, Fr. LaMorte and Parishioners,

Thank you for remembering the residents of Cardinal Hayes Home and so generously providing a wonderful array of gifts for them to enjoy again this year. These gifts bring special joy to our children and adults at Hayes.

We are very thankful to have such wonderful friends in the parishioners of St. Joseph Church who are always so kind, generous and thoughtful each year. We appreciate the time you take from your busy schedules to remember those we serve.

We pray that God blesses each and every one in St. Joseph Parish during 2019!
