Millbrook at Home — "Staying Safe and Strong" — September 18

Millbrook at Home invites you to join our next "Coffee and Connections" and learn how to stay safe and strong in your home and community. A representative from MOST, Millbrook and Dutchess County physical therapy specialists, will help attendees learn how to increase their muscle strength and flexibility through exercises and thoughtful movement. Attendees will learn how to exercise the body with the intent of increasing balance and reducing falls.

Join others at Millbrook at Home's Coffee and Connections program on "Staying Safe and Strong" on Wednesday, September 18 at 1:00pm in the Parish Hall at St. Joseph Church, 15 North Avenue, Millbrook, NY. Seniors and caregivers from around the area are invited to attend.

UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

What is it that makes Uncle Al's special? Many things come to mind — the great variety of merchandise, the wonderful window displays, how maximum use is made of the space, the friendly volunteers... We could mention much more, but the fact is Uncle Al's is special! It is a real asset to the community, attracting bargain hunters and people looking for that something special that just might be nestled on one of the shelves or hanging on a rack. Some of Uncle Al's customers are regulars, checking often to see what's new. Others are just going through town, stopping for lunch, drawn to the shop by the colorful OPEN banner. Keeping Uncle Al's attractive and thriving takes many volunteers. To each one: thank you for your dedication and commitment!

Our focus now is the upcoming COAT SALE and More! This one will knock your socks off! Many items already sorted and marked, and there's room for lots more. St. Joseph School gym will have a wonderful array of coats, sweaters, shoes and boots, suits & sport coats, handbags and accessories. Fall/winter items for the sale can be left at Uncle Al's during shop hours. AND many additional volunteers, men and women, will be needed to assist setting up (Wed., Oct. 9), as sales staff (Oct. 11, 12 & 13), breaking down and packing items for storage (Mon., Oct. 14). Contact Edye MacDonald at 677-9393 or Irene Wing at 677-3310.

All proceeds benefit St. Joseph-Immaculate Conception Church.

Our Blessed
Mother*
