Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Dear friends in the Lord:

Dioceses across the country are preparing to collect an offering for the Church in Latin America and The Catholic Home Missions Appeal this weekend. I ask for your support with these vital requests.

In Latin America, solidarity is promoted throughout the hemisphere by providing support for pastoral projects here and in the Caribbean. As an example, the Diocese of Cúcuta has been a migration point for needy Venezuelan refugees coming in search of food, medicine, and daily necessities. For several years, the diocese's welcome centers have served more than 1,000 meals each day to hungry migrants. The primary center, at Casa de Paso Divina Providencia, has been addressing the necessities of these refugees with resources as well as assistance from local businesses, charities and parishes.

Your help with The Catholic Home Missions will assist in making a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States by strengthening the Church in our own backyard.

I am counting on your usual generosity again this year. Your support is vital as it brings new life into the world. When you contribute, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics across the continents in solidarity with them. If you would like more information, you may visit either of these websites:

www.usccb.org/latin-america and www.usccb.org/home-missions.

With prayerful best wishes to you and your families, I am,

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

You just never know when a pop-up sale is going to well, pop up, at Uncle Al's. They're always exciting and fun, but on June 4 and 5 there was a real winner: long pants, men's and women's, for $1.00! Can you imagine — every pair of long pants on the racks, no exclusions. That means even the pants that were hung a few days prior, even the pants with the special labels, just $1.00. That's why we say stop in often — you just never know what exciting sale might be happening that day.

Thank you to our parishioners and community neighbors for the steady donations that keep us busy at the shop and keep the customers coming. Uncle Al's is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:00am to 4:00pm and on Saturday from 11:00am to 3:00pm.

All proceeds benefit St. Joseph-Immaculate Conception Church.

Outside Clean Up at the School

The Knights of Columbus will be leading a clean up around the School on Saturday, June 19th from 8:00am to 12 Noon. Volunteers are welcome to come and help out!

Mass Readings

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year B

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 17: 22-24

I have lifted high the lowly tree.

Thus says the Lord GOD:

I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar.
from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot,
and plant it on a high and lofty mountain;
on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it.
It shall put forth branches and bear fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.

Birds of every kind shall dwell
beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs.
And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the Lord,
bring low the high tree,
lift high the lowly tree,
wither up the green tree,
And make the withered tree bloom.
As I, the Lord, have spoken, so will I do.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 92: 2-3, 13-14, 15-16

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.
It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,
To proclaim your kindness at dawn and your faithfulness throughout the night. R

The just one shall flourish like the palm tree,
like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.

They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. R

They shall bear fruit even in old age;
vigorous and sturdy shall they be,
Declaring how just is the Lord,
my rock, in whom there is no wrong. R

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 5: 6-10

Whether we are at home or away, we aspire to please the Lord.

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

GOSPEL

Mark 4: 26-34

It is the smallest of all seeds, and becomes the largest of plants.

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come."

He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.
