UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

Have you noticed, there is color everywhere! It's like the world's windows were washed — lawns and trees, so green, flowering bushes and trees, gardens and flowerboxes filled with colorful blooms. And there's a brightness in people too: more smiles, lighter and more lively colored clothing.

Speaking of which, what are you missing to bring your wardrobe into season? Before you trot off to Poughkeepsie or Danbury, why not stop at Uncle Al's? We had a very pleased repeat customer last week who said she had gone to a wedding over the weekend and received many compliments on the dress she had on (you know where this is going). Yup, it came from Uncle Al's.

Of course, we have lots more besides clothing. Do you have a picnic basket? There are several at the shop. How about bedding to use when camping? Without spending a lot of money, you can create a whole new look for your home with different throw pillows, pictures or other home décor items.

Sound like fun? It is and at the same time, you will be supporting our wonderful Parish, St. Joseph –Immaculate Conception. We look forward to seeing you!

Mass Readings

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year B

FIRST READING

Job 38: 1, 8-11

Here shall your proud waves be stilled!

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm
and said:
Who shut within doors the sea,
when it burst for the from the womb;
when I made the clouds its garment
and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
When I set limits for it
and fastened the bar of its door,
and said: Thus far shall you come
but no farther,
and here shall your proud waves
be stilled!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 107: 23-24. 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
They who sailed the sea in ships,
trading on the deep waters,
These saw the works of the Lord
and his wonders in the abyss. R

His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high.
They mounted up to heaven; they sank to
the depths;
their hearts melted away in their plight. R

They cried to the Lord in their distress;
from their straits he rescued them,
He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze,
and the billows of the sea were stilled. R

They rejoiced that they were calmed,
and he brought them to their desired
haven.
Let them give thanks to the Lord for his kindness
and his wondrous deeds to the children of men. R

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 5: 14-17

Behold, new things have come.

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

GOSPEL Mark 4: 35-41

Who is this whom even wind and sea obey?

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith? They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"
