UNCLE AL'S THRIFT SHOP

It's a red, white and blue holiday with fireworks, family gatherings, and patriotism all around. Don't miss our 4th of July window display! At times Uncle Al's window is a gathering place as people stop to enjoy and admire what is currently displayed which is always seasonal, always fun to look at.

It's summertime, when life becomes a little more relaxed and casual. There is much at Uncle Al's to help you blend into that mode. Clothing, of course, lighter, more colorful, and accessories to complement the summer look. And jewelry — we have many, many necklaces and other pieces that will complete your summer outfits.

Lately we have had many donations of kitchen and household items — like new irons, cookware & utensils, mixers, baking dishes. That's a section of Uncle Al's you don't want to miss — all items are offered at bargain prices, anything electric has been tested and works.

Do you know how you can tell a person has just shopped at Uncle Al's? He or she has a big smile and sometimes adds a little skip to their step, like yippee — what a bargain I just got! Come on in, see for yourself — our Parish's thrift shop is unique and, we're told, the best one around!

Happy 4th of July and God Bless America!

Month of the Precious Blood of Jesus

Year of St. Joseph

Dear friends in the Lord:

Currently serving happily as president of the board of directors of the Black and Indian Mission Office, I write to you today to offer thanks for last year's support of $149,000, and to ask for your generosity again as we prepare to collect an offering on Sunday, July 11 for the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People. Established as the first national collection in 1874, it has proven itself to be a successful vehicle to provide for the needs of our African American, Native American and Alaska Native brothers and sisters.

This appeal clearly authenticates the call of Pope Francis to work as a family to share the faith, hope and love of Jesus Christ as we embark on another year of evangelization. Never have the needs within these communities been so great, especially during this unprecedented pandemic.

Your participation will provide the presence of missionaries in parishes, schools, religious education programs and many diocesan projects that strengthen the work of the gospel. Your partnership places bibles and catechetical materials, as well as food, shelter and medical care, in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women and lay leaders where evangelization efforts are multiplied a thousand fold.

Your help with the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People will assist in making a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters in these communities in the United States. You can learn more at www.blackandindianmission.org and help us invite all peoples to open the door of faith and begin the journey of a lifetime.

With prayerful best wishes to you and your families for a blessed summer, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

+Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
