Pope Francis

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. Special graces can be obtained that day.

With the canonization of Saint Faustina, Pope John Paul II, now Saint John Paul II declared that "the Second Sunday of Easter, henceforth throughout the Church will also be called Divine Mercy Sunday." From the diary of Saint Faustina, Our Lord said, "Whoever approached the Fountain of Life (Holy Communion) on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

(Diary, #300)

To receive the special graces of Divine Mercy Sunday:

- ~ Place complete trust in God's mercy;
- ~ Repent of all your sins and punishment & receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation within a reasonable time before the Feast;
- ~ Celebrate God's mercy by attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion on the Sunday after Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday;
- ~ Venerate the image of Jesus, The Divine Mercy;
- ~ Be merciful to our actions, words, or prayers on their behalf

Scripture Outline & Reflection

As Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus (3), so too were many brought to faith through the various signs and wonders wrought by the apostles (1). They proclaimed as Lord "the stone rejected by the builders" (Ps), "the First and the Last of the One who lives" (2).

Pray the Rosary

Monday's
 St. Anthony Church @ 7:00 p.m.

When we pray the rosary in its ideal setting, doing a whole set of mysteries, the prayer can slow us down, calm our hearts, and enable us to rest in God's presence. It draws out the deepest desires in our souls, desires for God and God alone. The rhythm of the repetitious prayers can have a profound spiritual effect. We pray to end persecution of Christians throughout the church, country, community and families.
