MASS ATTENDANCE
ST. ANTHONY 108 ST. PIUS X 20

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally. Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and united myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Scripture Outline & Reflection

Samuel does not see as God sees (1) in the voice of David, who is anointed with oil (Ps). As Jesus cures the blind man (3), so too are we brought from darkness into light (2) through the grace of baptism.

When he said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, And said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

John 4:13-14

ST. LUCY FILIPPINI
FEAST DAY MARCH 25TH

Saint Lucy Filippini, also known as Lucia, was born in Corneto-Tarquiniia on January 13, 1672. She was the fifth child of Filippo Fillippini and Maddalena Picchi. She was orphaned at an early age. At the age of six, she went to live with her aristocratic aunt and uncle who encourage her religious inclination by entrusting her education to the Benedictine nuns at Santa Lucia.

Her career began under the patronage of Cardinal Marcantonio Barbarigo, who entrusted her with the work of funding schools for young women, especially the poor. With Rose Venerini to train school teachers, she co-founded with Marcantonio Barbarigo the Pious Teachers (Religious Teachers Filippini) a group dedicated to the education of girls. The young ladies of Montefiascone were taught domestic arts, weaving, embroidering, reading and Christian doctrine. Twelve years later the Cardinal devised a set of rules to guide Lucy and her followers in the religious life. Fifty-two schools were established during Lucy's lifetime. Pope Clement XI, in 1707, called Lucy to Rome to start schools which he placed under his special protection. She died of breast cancer in 1732, age 60, at Montefiascone.

Lucy Filippini was canonized June 22, 1930. Her statue, by Silvio Silva 1949, can be seen in the south nave of St. Peter's Basilica.

God, you have called us from darkness to be light for the world. Grant that we might burn brightly, with all that we have, a sign to the nations of your saving power.

Word of the Week

NAVE - Part of the church used by the faithful, and distinct from the choir or sanctuary.

I will often think of the Father's Goodness and Providence. He not only supplies for my material needs, but for my spiritual needs. His Goodness brings good out of evil, and His Providence provides many opportunities for good works.
