The person with true wisdom, like Solomon (1), will seek the reign of God and treasure it above all else (3). It is more precious than gold and silver (Ps). Thus one becomes conformed to the image of Christ, the Son (2).

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Matthew 13:44

"It is the same with the kingdom of God." He who finds it has no doubt, he knows that he has found what he sought and awaited, and which answers his most authentic aspirations. It is truly like this: those who know Jesus, who encounter Him personally, are fascinated, attracted by such goodness, such truth, such beauty, and all this in great humility and simplicity. Seeking and finding Jesus: this is the greatest treasure of all!"

Pope Francis

Adoration will resume Tuesday, July 28. Please consider spending one hour of your day with the Eucharist between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

"When I begin to doubt and wonder, 'How do I know it's all true?' I immediately turn to God and cry out, 'I believe, O Lord, help my unbelief.' The Lord never said we had to understand His Will or His Truths. We only have obey them. Don't worry if you have doubts. Doubts do not displease God. They are permitted by Him - permitted to bring out deeper faith within us."
