Today's Readings

Ezekiel 33:7-9; Palms 95:1-2, 6-9;
 Romans 13:8-10; Matthew 18:15-20

May our hearts not be hardened (Ps), but may we turn from our sin (1). In our love for one another (2), we may be called to confront our brother and sister for the wrong they may be doing (3).

“If your brother sins [against you], go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother.

Matthew 18:15

Heartfelt gratitude is extended to all those who volunteered countless hours last weekend helping to prepare and serve our Parish the delicious

Spaghetti Dinner on Sunday. We especially thank Catholic Charities, the Knights of Columbus, our CYO and our office staff. Even though our Parish is relatively small it requires a team of dedicated volunteers who share their love for Jesus and our Parish by giving of their time and talent. Thank you and God Bless You All.

When to Step in and When to stay Quiet

Admonishing the sinner is one of the spiritual works of mercy, but one that is often misunderstood. It is not a license to tell everyone around you what they're doing wrong, but rather an invitation to fraternal correction.

Fraternal correction is an ancient, Christian understanding of what it means to help each other grow in holiness. It is not a reaction to injury suffered, it is not vengeance, it is not revenge, it is not a reaction because I am hurting. But instead, it happens when I am moved by love for my brother or sister. It happens when I am moved to assist my brother or sister in growth or holiness.

This is an important part of the spiritual life. To support each other, to call each other to holiness. But when we do it, we always need to be careful about it. We always need to realize that we're doing it not because of the injury we've experienced, not because of the frustration or impatience that I might have. But instead, because I really want the salvation of my brother or sister. And I really want those out there to be led to eternal life, with me too.

St. Anthony and St. Pius X Ladies Altar Society Meeting September 9th at 6:00 p.m. At St. Anthony Church

Meetings are held the 2nd Wednesday of each month beginning in September, at 6 p.m. at St. Anthony Church and ending for summer break in May.

Purposes of the Altar Society are to serve God and his people through the "up-keep" of the interior of the church, spiritual advancement of the members through their service, worship and social activities.

This purpose is achieved through cleaning and maintenance of the interior of the churches, taking care of all those things required for sacred worship and use through volunteer efforts.

Please consider joining the Society by calling Nadine Lombas @ 689-3879.

To place flowers on the altar or have the Sanctuary Lamp burn or have Special Mass Intentions held in honor of a loved one, please call the rectory at 689-4101.

The Gospel for today addresses an issue of tremendous practical importance — namely, whether and how we ought to engage in fraternal correction. This is the traditional term for constructive criticism of our brothers and sisters. Over and against the modern liberal etiquette of "live and let live," the Bible does indeed think we should engage in fraternal correction, and the extremely clarifying Gospel passage for today tells us how.

Word on Fire, Bishop Robert Barron
