Scripture Outline & Reflection READINGS

1 SAMUEL 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23;

PSALM 103:1-4, 8, 10, 12-13;

1 CORINTHIANS 15:45-49

LUKE 6:27-38

In baptism we are called to mirror and image (2) the mercy and forgiveness the Lord has won for us (Ps). As David would not harm Saul his enemy (1), so we are challenged to love and pardon those who wrong us (3).

But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6:35

The Most High possesses all knowledge and sees things that are to come from of old.

Sirach 42:18

REFLECTION: All throughout Sacred Scripture we hear that God has a plan for us.

When we discern that plan and embrace it, we find a profound sense of peace. When we reject that plan because we think it asks too much from us, we find a sense of uneasiness and frustration.

PRAYER: Spirit of God, teach me to surrender to Your plan.

WAY OF THE CROSS

Every Friday During Lent @ 6:00 p.m. at St. Anthony Church

Whether one is a Hindu or a Muslim or a Christian, how you live your life is proof that you are or are not fully His. We cannot condemn or judge or pass words that will hurt people. We don't know in what way God is appearing to that soul and what God is drawing that soul to: therefore, who are we to condemn anybody?

God calls you to make definitive choices, and he has a plan for each you: to discover that plan and to respond to your vocation is to move toward personal fulfillment. God calls each of us to be holy, to live his life, but he has a particular path for each one of us.

Pope Francis

We must perseveringly train our senses and faculties to seek the hidden, silent presence of God in everything, that they may serve us well in our quest for holiness.

Mother Angelica
