Fasting and Abstinence in the Catholic Church

For members of the Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

On Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays of Lent, everyone of age 14 and up must abstain from consuming meat.

Saint Colette
(January 13, 1381 - March 6, 1447)
Feast Day - March 6th

Invoked by childless couples desiring to become parents and is also the patroness of expectant mothers and sick infants

Colette was the daughter of a carpenter named DeBoilet at Corby Abbey in Picardy, France. She was born on January 13, christened Nicolette, and called Colette. Orphaned at seventeen, she distributed her inheritance to the poor. She became a Franciscan tertiary, and lived at Corby as a solitary. She soon became well known for her holiness and spiritual wisdom. In 1406 in response to a dream directing her to reform the Poor Clares. She received the Poor Clares habit from Peter de Luna, whom the French recognized as Pope under the name of Benedict XIII, with orders to reform the Order and appointing her Superior of all convents she reformed. Despite great opposition, she persisted in her efforts. She founded seventeen convents with the reformed rule and reformed several older convents. She was renowned for her sanctity, ecstasies, and visions of the Passion, and prophesied her own death in her convent at Ghent, Belgium. A branch of the Poor Clares is still known as the Collettines. She was canonized in 1807.

The angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true, for the Lord God Who inspires the Prophets has sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon."

Revelation 22:6

REFLECTION: The same Holy Spirit Who inspired the Prophets also inspired the author of the Book of Revelation.

This book was not written to predict the end of the world, but rather to tell us what we should do while we await the Day of the Lord: we should give witness to the Good News.

PRAYER: Lord, together with the Holy Spirit I call out, "Come, Lord Jesus."
