

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA
FEAST DAY - JUNE 13TH

Born at Lisbon in 1195, Anthony entered the order of Austin Canons but became a Franciscan in 1220, struck by the martyrdom of several Franciscan friars in Morocco. He was a preaching friar, greatly gifted at oratory, and taught in several European universities. He settled in Padua, where he dedicated himself exclusively to preaching. He died in 1231 and was canonized in 1232, only eleven months after his death. In 1946, he was declared a Doctor of the Church. He is depicted in a Franciscan cowl with a book, bread, flame, heart, lily, and the Christ Child. He is invoked in finding all lost things and by women seeking husbands.

Protector of orphans, prisoners, shipwrecked persons, pregnant women, sterile women, sick children, glaziers and conscripts.

Name: Anthony is from the Roman family name Antonius.

The Spirit of the Lord God has come upon me for the Lord has anointed me . . . to announce good news to the oppressed.

REFLECTION. St. Anthony of Padua's spirit-filled preaching brought great consolation to those who heard him. It challenged them to conversion and offered them love and healing.

We cannot experience true consolation until we change our ways so that we might be receptive to God's message to us.

PRAYER. Anoint me, Lord, as You anointed St. Anthony with the Spirit of Wisdom.
