

SAINT MARTHA
FEAST DAY - JULY 29TH

Sister of Lazarus and Mary (traditionally identified as Mary Magdalen), Martha was a disciple of Jesus, who visited her several times in her home in Bethany. The Gospels refer to her three times: the episode of the raising to life of Lazarus; when she complained that Mary, intent on listening to the words of Jesus, was not helping with the domestic chores; and just before the Passion, when she and Mary entertained Jesus at dinner. Her cult was born in Provence with the finding of her presumed relics in 1187. She is depicted with a bucket and aspergillum or with utensils for the care of the home.

Protector. Housewives, maids, servants, cooks, and hospital dietitians.

Name: Martha is from the Aramaic and means "mistress, lady."

Scripture Outline & Reflection

READINGS

Geneis 18:20-32;

Psalm 138:1-3, 6-8;

Colossians 2:12-14;

Luke 11:1-13

In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer (1). Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to "ask... seek... knock" (3). May our prayer open us to God's will, and so build up his strength within us (Ps). In baptism, we have died with Christ, and have been raised to life with him (2).

He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come"

Our Lady of Prompt Succor Hasten to Help Us!

Our Father in Heaven, through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us during this hurricane season from all harm. Protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

To each of us, the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:7

Reflection. When the Spirit gives us various gifts, it is not for our own benefit. The Spirit does not want us to become arrogant or possessive. We are given gifts so that we might use them for the common good: the building up the body of Christ.

This is why we should rejoice in the gifts others have received, for they are really given to all of us.

Prayer. Thank you, Generous Spirit, for the gifts You have given to me and those around me.
