

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini

Feast Day - November 13
Patron Saint Immigrants and hospital administrators

Starting from absolute zero, Mother Cabrini miraculously began her work among Italian immigrants. She would work almost exclusively with, and for, Italians the rest of her life. She begged, pleaded, and cajoled. She pulled every lever of charm and persuasion she could reach. It worked. Her deep spirituality and constant state of motion soon put her in contact with Italian benefactors eager to help their own. Mother Cabrini was then seemingly everywhere, doing everything. She founded hospitals, orphanages, schools, workshops, and convents in New York, Denver, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Chicago. She trekked to Nicaragua, Argentina, and Brazil. She sailed back to Italy nine times. She became an American citizen but remained fully Italian in her identity and a source of pride for America's many "Little Italies." Mother Cabrini's relentless energy, remarkable administrative skills, shrewdness, humility, and charisma quickly built an empire of charity. When she died in Chicago, she left behind sixty-seven institutions and a robust Order of dedicated nuns. On July 7, 1946, she became the first United States citizen to be canonized a saint.

READINGS

Malachi 3:19-20;

Psalms 98:5-6, 7-8, 9;

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12;

Luke 21:5-19

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia (second coming). Through their perseverance (3) they will emerge victorious (1) when the Lord comes again (Ps). As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations (2).

"You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."
Luke 21:17-19

MY CHILD, when you come to serve the Lord, prepare yourself for testing.

Sirach 2:1

REFLECTION: It is not easy to serve the Lord! We may be so enthusiastic about our commitment to serve the Lord, that we think the actual serving won't wear us down.

Not so! Working for God means testing our own egos. And when we realize that we are not up to the task, we need to let go and let God.

PRAYER: Father, when I dedicate myself to Your service, remind me that all will not go smoothly and comfort me when it doesn't.

Daily Meditations on God's Love

We will begin Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday, December 3rd from 8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in St. Anthony Parish Hall. We will continued every Saturday at this same time. Please see the signup sheet at the entrance of church to commit to times to adore Him.

DEMONSTRATE YOUR TRUST IN ME by sitting quietly in My Presence. Put aside all that is waiting be done, and refuse to worry about anything. This sacred time together strengthens you and prepares you to face whatever the day will bring. By waiting with Me before you begin the day's activities, you proclaim the reality of My living Presence. This act of faith - waiting before working - is noted in the spirit world, where your demonstration of trust weakens principalities and powers of darkness.

The most effective way to resist evil is to draw near Me. When you need to take action, I will guide you clearly through My Spirit and My Word. The world is so complex and overstimulating that you can easily lose your sense of direction. Doing countless unnecessary activities will dissipate your energy. When you spend time with Me, I restore your sense of direction. As you look to Me for guidance, I enable you to do less but accomplish more.

Luke 12:22-26; Ephesians 6:12; Proverbs 16:3
