SAINT AGNES

Memorial

JANUARY 21ST

Patron Saint of those seeking chastity and purity, engaged couples, rape victims, gardeners, young girls, and Girl Scouts

Agnes was born into a noble Christian family in Rome. She was said to have been quite beautiful, which, together with her wealth and holiness, caused many young noblemen to seek her as their bride. But Agnes' eyes beheld One Who was the most beautiful of all — her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. After taking in His beauty, she could look upon no one else. She dedicated herself to a life of virginity.

Agnes was reported to the local prefect Sempronius for being a Christian, in an attempt to dissuade her from her vow of chastity. The prefect first tried to convince Agnes to offer sacrifice to the Roman gods. She refused. Her heart was firm in its devotion to her Beloved. The prefect then tried to frighten her by displaying some instruments of torture in the hands of the cruel executioner himself. Agnes showed no fear and refused to burn incense to false gods. Outraged, the prefect ordered that she be taken to brothels to be violated by immoral men. During these ordeals, Agnes knew her Heavenly Spouse would protect her.

The prefect, having failed to convert Agnes back to paganism, or to defile her body, then condemned her to a death by beheading. Agnes willingly offered her neck to the executioner, who trembled with fear as he approached, while she was as joyful as a bride waiting to meet her Bridegroom. Her name in Latin means "lamb." As a result, since the sixteenth century, every year on her feast day two lambs are brought to the Roman basilica built over her tomb. Their wool is shorn and weaved into various pallia, vestments covering the shoulders. These very pallia are later placed on the shoulders of archbishops by the pope himself on the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul. Along with his crozier, or staff, the pallium symbolizes a bishop's role as shepherd.

Special Prayer Intentions for our Sick Parishioners

Arise, my love. For now the flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come ... the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance.

Song of Songs 2:10, 12

REFLECTION: We see God's love for us in the wonders of the earth; flowers blooming in the garden, fruit hanging on branches and vines, sunsets, earth-drenching storms.

Today, notice God's love in creation, and point out a sign of this love to another, as a token of your love.

PRAYER: Creator God, open my eyes to the wonders that surround me every day, and let my love go out to the world You made and all its creatures.

Daily Meditations on God's Love

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT AND MY SALVATION; WHOM SHOULD I FEAR?

THE LORD IS MY LIFE'S REFUGE; OF WHOM SHOULD I BE AFRAID?.

Psalm 40:1-2
