Scripture Outline & Reflection

29th Sunday of Ordinary
World Mission Sunday

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; / Psalms 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10;

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5; / Matthew 22:15-21

The Lord is king (Ps) and there is no other (1). We are to render to God, therefore, fitting praise and service, as is God's due (3). God's word to us, in turn, is a matter of power and strength, to be lived with conviction of heart (2).

We pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer. We pray that the Church, the Body of Christ, will continue to form and send missionaries to go forth to new geographical, social and existential peripheries to proclaim the Love of Jesus.

For our Fishermen, we are grateful for the abundant harvest, we pray for an end to the injustice which causes the fishermen to suffer economically. May this injustice come to an end so that our fishermen can provide a good life for their families.

October 22: Saint John Paul II, Pope—Memorial

Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ. To His saving power, open the boundaries of States, economic and political systems, the vast fields of culture, civilization and development. Do not be afraid. Christ knows "what is in man." He alone knows it. So often today man does not know what is within him, in the depths of his mind and heart. So often he is uncertain about the meaning of his life on this earth. He is assailed by doubt, a doubt which turns into despair. We ask you therefore, we beg you with humility and trust, let Christ speak to man. He alone has words of life, yes, of eternal life. ~Inaugural homily of Pope John Paul II

Saint John Paul II, your life began with the loss of your earthly family, but you were later entrusted with the entire world as your children. Please pray for me, that I will never allow hardships in this life to deter me from the service of God's will, so that I can remain hopeful and fearless as I seek to serve our glorious God. Saint John Paul II, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
