Scripture Outline & Reflection

1 Samual 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a; Psalm 23: 1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6; Ephesians: 5:8-14; John 9:1-41

God pardons and raises up those who have been unfaithful (1), those who have loved the darkness rather than the light. For God so loved the world that he sent his only Son (2, 3) to deliver the world from exile (Ps).

The man who was blind went off and washed himself and came back able to see.

In the month of March we honor and seek the intercession of St. Joseph, husband of Mary and foster father of Jesus, patron of husbands and fathers, workers, and of happy death. Each week of this month we will share a different prayer asking St. Joseph's intercession.

Prayer. To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Let us pray for peace, joy, and love. We are reminded that Jesus came to bring the good news: "My peace I leave with you, my peace I give you." He came not to give the peace of the world which is only that we do not harm each other. He came to give the peace of heart which comes from loving—from doing good to others.
