When the Spirit from on high is poured down upon us, then the desert will become an orchard and the orchard a forest.

- Isa 32:15

Reflection. When God Created us, He intended for there to be an intimate bond between God and us, between us and nature. Sin has damaged all of these bonds. The Spirit's creative love heals those bonds. Even nature will flourish when we walk by the Spirit for we will be treating it with sacred respect.

Prayer. Spirit of Peace, bring healing to the fractured world.

[Daily Meditations with the Holy Spirit]

April 14th

A beggar came up to me and said, "Mother Teresa, everybody gives you things for the poor. I also want to give you something, but I only have ten pence. I want to give that to you." I said to myself, "If I take it, he might have to go to bed without eating. If I don't take it, I will hurt him." So I took it. And I've never seen so much joy on anybody's face who has given food or money as I saw on that man's face that day. He was happy that he could give something. This is the joy of loving.

Jesus greets his disciples, "Peace be with you." This is a most appropriate greeting. The disciples witnessed a death of someone they loved, and they now fear of their own lives as well. Peace is what they need more than anything else. Jesus often connects this greeting of peace with another gift-forgiveness.
