A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

146. Contrary to the growing consumerist individualism that tends to isolate us in a quest for well-being apart from others, our path to holiness can only make us identify all the more with Jesus' prayer "that all may be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you" (Jn 17:21).

147. Finally, though it may seem obvious, we should remember that holiness consists in a habitual openness to the transcendent, expressed in prayer and adoration. The saints are distinguished by a spirit of prayer and a need for communion with God. They find an exclusive concern with this world to be narrow and stifling, and, amid their own concerns and commitments, they long for God, losing themselves in praise and contemplation of the Lord. I do not believe in holiness without prayer, even though that prayer need not be lengthy or involve intense emotions.

Our Lenten theme is "Renewed by Grace." So what does the Church mean by "grace"? The Catechism of the Catholic Church 1996 - 2005 teaches us about grace. Grace is a free gift that God gives to us to respond to his call to become children of God. Grace is a participation in the life of God. Sanctifying grace is given to us in the sacraments and allows us to live with God, and to act by his love, both now and in eternity. Actual graces are actions of God in our lives that help us to live out our Christian vocation more fully. During Lent we focus on God's gift of grace to help us live in ways that increase our holiness and Christian witness. The theme Renewed by Grace reminds us of God's love for us and our desire to respond to that love.
