FROZEN CASSEROLE SALE

November 21st the date of our Annual Frozen Casserole Sale is fast approaching. We hope that you have been preparing and freezing your favorite recipes for the sale this year. The best part is you prepare it at your convenience, freeze it and drop it off at the family life center on the drop off days. We still have pans in the Narthex. Please feel free to take as many as you are willing to fill, freeze and return for the sale.

Although, our main objective is to prepare sides for Thanksgiving dinner, the holidays are a very busy time and it will be nice to have a Casserole that can be popped in the oven for a quick meal. Meat casseroles are a great seller as are soups, stews or gumbo.

Before freezing your Casserole be sure to label with the following info: Main ingredients, cooking instructions, your name and phone number. Label before freezing, labels won't stick to frozen containers.

Pans are in the Narthex. Please take as many as you are willing to fill and return. Bless you!!

Drop off dates: This Wednesday, November 18, 2:00 – 7:00 pm and Friday, November 20, 2:00 – 7:00 pm
(we ask that fresh baked goods be dropped off on the 20th)

If cooking isn't your thing, how about baking? We need breads, cakes, pies, cookies...Not into baking either? Monetary donations to help with the cost of casseroles made by the ladies would be greatly appreciated.

Flyers are available for you to put at your work place or favorite store. Please help us get the word out. (remember ask permission before putting up posters). Don't forget to post the page to your social media as well!!

Questions, or have some time to donate call Cil 662-420-9875 or the church office at 662-429-7851.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Food Drive

Interfaith will once again be furnishing food baskets for the elderly at Thanksgiving, as well as providing food for our families at Christmas. Because of the Covid 19 situation, we feel we will not be getting as much food as we normally receive. Many of our churches are still not operating at all or at least at a reduced capacity. Also, we usually receive donations from schools, businesses, etc. and we feel those donations may be greatly reduced. We therefore ask that you purchase a bag or two of staples on your next shopping trip and bring them to the church as soon as possible.

We are committed to carrying out our Ministry and are grateful for the support we always receive from our Holy Spirit Family.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

OPENING SONG Anthem

Tom Conry

Refrain: We are called, we are chosen. We are Christ for one another. We are promised to tomorrow, while we are for him today. We are sign, we are wonder. We are sower, we are seed. We are harvest, we are hunger. We are question, we are creed.
1. Then where can we stand justified? In what can we believe? In no one else but he who suffered, nothing more than he who rose. Who was justice for the poor. Who was rage against the night. Who was hope for peaceful people. Who was light. R
2. Then how are we to stand at all, this world of bended knee? In nothing more than barren shadows. No one else but he could save us. Who was justice for the poor. Who was rage against the night. Who was hope for peaceful people. Who was light. R
3. Then shall we not stand empty at the altar of our dreams: When he promised us ourselves. Who mark time against tomorrow. Who are justice for the poor. Who are rage against the night. Who are hope for peaceful people. Who are light. R

PENITENTIAL RITE.

GLORY TO GOD.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER.

+ + LITURGY OF THE WORD + +

FIRST READING:

Proverbs 31:10–13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

PSALM RESPONSE: Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

SECOND READING:

1 Thessalonians 5:1–6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

ALLELUIA

GOSPEL:

Matthew 25:14–30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one – to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.”

HOMILY

CREED I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
