 Safe and Happy
 Summer !

Dear Parishioners,

On this Fathers Day, we acknowledge all the Fathers in the parish. The model of all fathers is St. Joseph. It is interesting to note that St. Joseph is mentioned a number of times in the gospels but he is laconic, no words are spoken but instead he speaks with actions. A hard working carpenter, he ensured the Holy Family practiced the faith by attending the local synagogue throughout the year and going up to the Temple all the way to Jerusalem for special Feast Days.

Speaking of Fathers, last week was eventful here at MPB. First we welcomed Fr. Antony Amaladass OFM Cap. to our Parish. Fr. Antony, who came all the way from India, will be staying with us for a few months and we are grateful for his presence. We also welcomed back Fr. Hartley Bancroft who celebrated the 11:00 Mass and offered first blessing in Fr. Sullivan Hall after Mass. It is amazing to think just six years ago Fr. Hartley was staying in the parish as a summer seminarian. Ad Multos Annos.

This week we also welcomed three new members of the Rosary Altar Society; this is a fantastic group of volunteers that helps ensure the Altar and linens for Mass always look great. They also do many charitable works. We thank them for their quiet work in maintaining and beautifying our Church and Chapel.

And finally, as of June 10 MPB Parish had pledged $45,234.00 to the Cardinal's Appeal which is I think is the largest amount ever! Thank you for your generosity! The Cardinal's Appeal helps to make the Corporal Works of Mercy possible in the Archdiocese of New York, which of course includes Walden and Wallkill. Well Done!

Yours in Christ,
