From the Pastor's Desk

Note from Fr. Tom:

It is hard this time of year not to notice the sun sets sooner and rises later. Perhaps our drive home from work is becoming steadily darker, or our morning routine can no longer be carried out without the aid of a lamp. Our bodies likely notice this seasonal shift because we long for sunlight and need it for our physical health. So too, our minds and souls may be longing for light. Every person here is likely confronting some sort of darkness. It may be very tangible darkness like sickness or the loss of a job or a broken relationship. Perhaps it is a more creeping darkness, such as the pressure of being constantly busy, the challenge of forming your children in virtue, or the difficulty of building authentic friendships in a world geared toward the superficial. This internal darkness can weigh more heavily this time of year as well.

Take a moment to imagine yourself in a dark room. Can you see it in your mind's eye? Now imagine the candle we lit at the beginning of this liturgy today being carried into that dark room. What happens to the darkness? Can you see the light scattering the darkness? Can you picture the darkness fleeing before the light of the Advent candle? This is the promise of Advent. It is the promise of a candle in a dark room. The promise of the dawn breaking over the horizon. It is the promise that darkness cannot stand in the presence of even a small light. This season then, is a season marked by the growing light of these candles. As we enter into this holy season, we must be watchers, searching for these lights, eagerly awaiting the dawn.

This is not simply a time for shopping and parties, which are good, but Jesus warns us about such activity and the blindness it can produce. Instead, he calls us to be attentive and ready in a fundamentally different way. Just as we focused our attention on the light of our Advent wreath to begin today's liturgy, we are called throughout this season to focus our attention on Christ's light. We are invited to allow Christ to bring his light to our darkness. We are called to awake to God who draws near. The hour is now for us to awake from sleep, to throw off the works of darkness, to put on the armor of light, to stream toward the highest mountain, where Christ's light can be seen most fully. This mountain is represented here in our sanctuary. As we climb toward the altar to receive the Light of the World in this Eucharist, may we be empowered to beat our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruning hooks, to do the work Christ came to carry out in our world. May we, in this blessed sacrament, be made light for the world.

May God bless you all! Fr. Tom

Seminarian Christmas Gift Cards

The seminary gift card program again was very successful because of MPB parishioners ... The envelopes were gone the first weekend we put them out. Again not all envelopes sent to parishes are returned, so the seminary can always use any extra they receive. If you still want to purchase a card put it in an envelope marked what it's for and send it to the rectory... If you would like to receive a thank-you include your name and address in the envelope. Call the rectory if you have questions, 845-778-5719.
