PASTORAL REGION NEWS

The Hamilton Pastoral Region Planning Committee (PRPC) met on Tuesday, Oct. 20. Among other matters, we reviewed the responses gathered at the three listening sessions held at the three parishes in August and September. We received very good, thoughtful and sincere responses at all parishes. A sincere "thank you" to all who took the time to participate in those sessions with us. A summary of those responses will be forthcoming in next weekend's bulletin and, as promised at the sessions, a full capture of all responses will be available at all the parishes. It is clear that as this process evolves, consistent communication will be very important. Therefore the regional committee has decided that we will be publishing updates at least twice a month in the parish bulletins. We truly appreciate your patience with this process.

The committee is now in the beginning phases of looking at putting our plan together. We are gathering pertinent information from each parish and using your input from the listening sessions to guide our process. Prayer was another key point noted at all the sessions. So please continue to keep our parishes, our parishioners and our committee in those prayers.

Building community, strengthening lives.

Great News! St. Julie's has received word that our first week to host homeless families is scheduled for January 24th, just 3 short months away! There is still much to do to prepare before hosting. One way everyone can help is to purchase a raffle ticket for the beautiful French Heritage Quilt that will be raffled off on November 14th at the SJBH French Heritage Dinner. The proceeds this year will benefit Family Promise! If you are not a member of St. Julie's, tickets can be purchased through St. Julie's church office. Also, it is not too late to become a volunteer with Family Promise. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Stephanie Roberts at groberts4@cinci.rr.com. Thanks again for your generous donations to Family Promise.

Pope Francis and the Jubilee Year of Mercy

The Jubilee Year of Mercy begins on December 8, 2015, the fiftieth anniversary of the closing of the Second Vatican Council. Here are a few important themes for reflection during this important year.

Jesus is the "face" of the Father's mercy

Jesus of Nazareth, Pope Francis writes in Misericordiae Vultus, the Bull of Indiction of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, is the "face" of the Father's mercy—he reveals the mercy of God by his words, actions, and person. We follow Jesus' example when we open ourselves to the Father's mercy by looking "sincerely" into the eyes of our brothers and sisters, including those "who are denied their dignity." How have you experienced the Father's mercy in your own life? How might Jesus be calling you to look "sincerely" into the eyes of those who are denied their dignity?

To request a Blessed Prayer Blanket, please contact Marilyn Flum (868-1675), Jan Huffman (309-2674), or Marlene Pfeil (863-4822)

Puzzle

Help her find her way to Jesus.

Read the Gospel and Color

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When you ask Jesus to play with you, he will say, "Which game do you want to play first?" If you ask him to the movies, he will go with you. When extra people show up for his party, he will say, "Come on in, there's always room for one more." If you need to talk with him, he will say, "Sit down right now and tell me all about it." Jesus Christ will never turn you away.

Prayer

Thanks for being my friend, Jesus.

Something to Draw

Draw Jesus welcoming all sorts of people into heaven.

Mission for the Week

Remember some people who have died. Say a prayer for them.
