Shepherd's Call

Happy Father's Day! It is a privilege, a challenge, and a joy to be able to form our children. We want good things for our children – feeling of security and home, a life of aspiration and inspiration, and enduring relationships with siblings and friends. Fathers have an important role to play. When I think of my father, I often think of "what big shoes to fill;" he is a very good man.

In our gospel Jesus uses a field as a parable for the Kingdom of God. It takes time for each of us to grow and mature. Chris Stefanick in a moment of prayer also had a vision of a field – but it was scorched and laid waste. The Holy Spirit suggested to him it was a vision of what Satan and contemporary culture wants to make of men within the Church. He responded with courage and established the MenRiseUp challenge. I am starting it tomorrow. Sign up at MenRiseUp.org.

This month I have baptized my niece, Quinn Marie, and recall the baptism of my Godson, James Francis, two years ago. I have the same joy for family baptisms as I have for baptisms in our own parishes. If you have a child to be baptized, call the parish office. I am thankful to Fr. Richmond and Fr. Polycarp for sharing their love for God in the baptism classes on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month.

Some local musicians – singers of the Butler Philharmonic – perform in Carnegie Hall today. We are blessed to have great musicians in our region! I am thankful for all those involved in parish music ministry (consider joining ; -). Thank you to Michael, Jonathan, and Theresa. We are blessed.

What a joy to know, love, and serve the good God!

In Christ,

Fr. Rob

Remembering our Parish in Your Will or Codicil:

As many of you know, every year St. Julie's receives bequests from parishioners' estates. We are most appreciative for this generous gift. Gifts such as these help our parish to continue to share God's Word through our various worship programs and ministries. When you call or visit your attorney, discuss adding the following language to your will or codicil: "$0.00 or % of estate to be distributed to St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church, currently located at 224 Dayton Street, Hamilton, Ohio 45011. If the church is not in existence at my death, the distribution to it shall be made to the successor institution into which it was merged. If there is no successor or merged institution, the bequest shall lapse."
