Shepherd's Call

I am always dumbfounded, awestruck by Jesus going through the Passion in John's gospel! He is being led to death on a Cross – from a human perspective everything is collapsing around him, his friends deserting him – yet he speaks from a place of calm and control. In today's gospel he stands before the man who will decide whether he lives or dies. Yet in their exchange, it is Pilate, not Jesus, who is uncertain and uneasy. I am not sure what you would call the virtue Jesus, Christ the King, displays here: Poise? Equanimity? Courage? Whatever name you give the attribute, this is a man (and more than man) whom I want to follow!

Christ the King of the Universe is a rallying point for people whose earthly leaders are not measuring up. The dignity of the human person is threatened so many ways in today's world. It is the servants of Christ the King who will also testify to the truth and stand for those whose life or dignity has been threatened. "Viva Cristo Rey!" "Long live Christ the King!" was a rallying cry for the Cristeros of Mexico in the early 1900s.

The second grade students at our schools and our Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) have prepared for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. They and their families will be at our pastoral region's penance service on December 4th. It is open to all who want to take advantage of this Sacrament and the grace of the Sacrament.

Next weekend is the beginning of Advent. Do you have an Advent wreath for your home?

Let us serve Christ, our King!

In Christ,

Fr. Rob

Pastoral Region News

During the month of November we reflect on the corporal work of mercy: bury the dead. The Church prefers full-body, casket burial, but permits cremation so long as it is not a rejection of belief in the resurrection of the body. To accommodate respectful placement of cremated remains, St. Stephen cemetery will begin building a cremation garden in the spring. St. Mary's cemetery has places available for cremated remains. Firm is our hope in the resurrection, for Jesus was the first to rise from the dead.
