Questions of the Week

January 12, 2020 Gospel

We must do what God wants, even when we don't understand it fully.

Question for Children: What does God want you to do? To forgive? Be generous? To love?

Question for Youth: As you grow, how do you know what God wants you to do? How do you hear the voice of God saying, "you are one of mine, of my chosen?"

Question for Adults: Today's readings lead to a core question: As you follow God and do what he wants, how do you experience his loving words: "You are my own. My favor is upon you."?

Pastor's Corner

Last Sunday, the feast of the Epiphany, our Bishops designated National Migration Week. Our Bishops do that at this time of the year because the Holy Family migrated to Egypt and the Magi were moving in search of the real Good News. While we are all spiritual pilgrims in this world, some of us need to leave our native land behind to seek safety and a decent life.

It comes as no news to many of you that Immigration Reform is something I care deeply about because it affects the lives of many of our fellow parishioners. That is why I regularly mention it. Obviously, with refugees and migrants from the Middle East and Africa entering Europe, this issue is even more contentious there. But not only there. For instance Jordan, with a total population of 6.61 million, has 630,776 Syrians registered as refugees. This doesn't count the thousands of Palestinian refugees who have lived in Jordan for decades. Our country, comparatively, takes many fewer refugees and migrants. A comparable percentage for us would be over 39.5 million refugees and migrants. The current administration has restricted that even further.

In recent years much attention has been focused on unaccompanied children crossing our southern border. While that has abated, it continues to be an issue. While it is a very complicated reality, we can all agree to pray: Loving Father, in your infinite compassion, we seek your divine protection for refugee children who are often alone and afraid.

Provide solace to those who have been witnesses to violence and destruction, who have lost parents, family, friends, home, and all they cherish due to war or persecution.

Comfort them in their sorrow, and bring help in their time of need.

Show mercy to unaccompanied migrant children, too, Lord.

Reunite them with their families and loved ones.

Guide those children who are strangers in a foreign land to a place of peace and safety.

Comfort them in their sorrow, and bring help in their time of need.

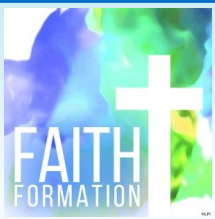

Show us how we might reach out to these precious and vulnerable children.

Open our hearts to migrant and refugee children in need, so that we might see in them your own migrant Son.

Give us courage to stand up in their defense against those who would do them harm.

For this we pray through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Additionally, we will pray for greater support for mothers and fathers in bearing unborn babies and supporting born children, and as well God's mercy and forgiveness for all involved in abortion etc... We will prayerfully walk around the Butler County Courthouse seven times, using the Biblical example of Jericho in bringing down the walls of injustice, resulting from the Court system's protection of the "Culture of Death" via the "Roe V Wade decision of 1973". Remembering our Parish in Your Will or Codicil:

As many of you know, each year St. Julie's receives bequests from parishioners' estates. We are most appreciative for this generous gift. Gifts such as these help our parish continue to share God's Word through our various worship programs & ministries. Since 2010 our parish was able to provide tuition assistance to 85 students from our parish who attend a Catholic School through the generous bequest of a parish member. We are blessed to have parish members who, even after they are enjoying their reward with Jesus in heaven, continue to support the work of our parish. We are often asked how to make such a bequest & it is very simple. When you call or visit your attorney, discuss adding the following language to your will or codicil: "$0.00 or % of estate to be distributed to St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church, currently located at 224 Dayton Street, Hamilton, Ohio 45011. If the church is not in existence at my death, the distribution to it shall be made to the successor institution into which it was merged. If there is no successor or merged institution, the bequest shall lapse."
