Questions of the Week

January 19, 2020 Gospel

God's plan in Christ begins to unfold in human history.

Question for Children: If someone were to ask you, "who is Jesus?" how would you answer?

Question for Youth: How are you able to see through all the busyness, the distractions, and the din of today's world to really see Christ as he makes himself present today? Where do you see him or experience his presence?

Question for Adults: In the gospel today, John tells us who Jesus is for him. If someone were to ask you, how would you answer this question: Who Jesus is for you?

Pastor's Corner

Wednesday is the anniversary of the Roe v Wade decision. For years this has been a special time of prayer for the legal protection of unborn children. I am sure that to say more than that is unnecessary and “preaching to the choir”. Yet, it is important to “rally the troops”, so to speak, as we continue to demand an end to abortion in this country. Wednesday’s 8:00 am Mass will be prayed especially for this intention. It is also a time to ask forgiveness as a society. The origins of the Roe v Wade decision are found in our broader culture’s insistence that individual freedom trumps communal responsibility.

The phrase, “A woman has a right to choose what to do with her own body” does not deny that another life is at stake. Rather, it claims that the individual’s freedom trumps the responsibility for the other life in the womb. It also seems to me that the individualism that is so often lauded in our culture (“everyone needs to earn his own keep”) keeps us from supporting, as we ought, women who choose life in a precarious situation. There is a societal cost to being pro-life.

Let us pray, as well, that pro-life people can be part of a broad coalition to support early childhood programs and nutrition and healthcare programs for all families. These kinds of social safety nets give a bit of security to poor women that their children will have a decent chance at a dignified life. For a woman in crisis, some security can make all the difference. Being Pro-Life has to mean more than just being Anti-Abortion. Unfortunately, it often happens that the politicians who identify themselves as “anti-abortion” are also against these programs that give hope to pregnant poor women.

So, in addition to asking for forgiveness, we also have reason to give thanks for women who choose life, for those in their families who support their decision (e.g. grandparents raising their children’s children), and for all those who politically support pro-family programs. God bless you all.

Father Richmond baptized twin boys, Barrett and Thomas Frederick, at St. Joseph on December 29.

The parishioners of the Hamilton Catholic Pastoral Region feel blessed for the opportunity to journey with you as you and your child’s godparents prepare for the baptism of your child. Baptism preparation classes are held on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of the month at St. Julie Billiard Parish. Contact Mary Richter at 863-1040, ext. 17 to register or for more information about baptizing your child.

Baptism: If you have an infant to be baptized, please call one of the parish offices.

Marriage: Schedule through Father Rob.

Anointing of the Sick: If you or a loved one are in the hospital or expecting surgery, call one of the parish offices. In an emergency, call 513-863-6190.

2020 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

This weekend we will be listening to an audio message from Archbishop Schnurr explaining how our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal allows us to stand Together for the Faith of the Gospel through ministries that teach, feed, and heal throughout the archdiocese. Thanks to the generosity of many families here at St. Julie, a total of $23,784.30 was contributed to the 2019 CMA from our parish community. This year, our goal is $22,733.00.

Families will be receiving a CMA mailing from Archbishop Schnurr in the coming week or so. Please prayerfully complete your pledge card and return it in the envelope provided, or bring your completed pledge card to Mass. For more information or to donate online, please visit CatholicAppeal.info.
