ISBN: 9781501126079
Due Date: September 13, 2024

Each year, the National English Honor Society publishes the title of a Common Reader, in an effort to promote a book that they deem worthwhile literature for our high school students. For your summer reading for St. John's University English, you will read Sing, Unburied, Sing by Jesmyn Ward. You must complete this novel by September 13th, 2024. Your assessment - which will count as a major assessment in the 1st quarter - will be based on essay prompts provided by the National English Honor Society in mid-August. You will receive those prompts in the first week of school with your SJU English teacher.
