Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 25:6-10a; Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20; Matthew 22:1-14

There is a time for everything. . .

How quickly this year has gone by—even with the Virus. The leaves are turning, it is football season—although limited—and people are talking about winter.

Fall is the time when we renew our financial commitment to the parish.

In the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, it says that there is a time for everything. A time to be born and a time to die. A time to weep, and a time to laugh. A time to mourn and a time to dance.

Fall is a time when the gardens are harvested, a time when farmers harvest their fields. This is the time when we reflect on how blessed we truly are. Everybody has adversity in their lives. If there was no adversity, we would not be on earth, we would be in heaven.

If we look, we can find God's blessings that have been given to us. Look around you. They are there. Sometimes small (often the best gifts are in small packages), but always meaningful. Always given to you by the grace and love of God. Now is the time to return a portion of your gifts to God to show our love for Him.

By now, you should have received your commitment sheet in the mail. Please consider all that God has done for you and prayerfully fill out the sheet. Return the sheet to the parish office, drop it in the collection basket or return by mail. Returning the sheet will save us a follow-up call to your home on Oct. 19. I'm sure you are tired of political calls and we don't want to add another call so please return your sheet prior to Oct. 19.

As it says in Ecclesiastes, there is a time for everything. Now is the time to return a portion of your treasure to the One who has given it to you.

Thank you to all who have so generously contributed this past year in spite of the Virus. May God's blessing be upon you and your loved ones.

Next week's readings:

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b; Matthew 22:15-21

You asked "What most needs to change in the world? The reply, "I do."
