Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Exodus 22:20-26; 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10; Matthew 22:34-40

What is a good steward?

Grateful: thanking God daily for the blessings he or she has received. A good steward never stops saying "thank you".

Responsible: with the blessings that God has bestowed; not only using them prudently, but also making sure that they not wither away. It's that way with some gifts, isn't it? Think about the gift of music. A musician needs to continue to work with the gift of music or it will fade away. It's that way with every gift, especially the gift of faith. Parents are good stewards when they care for, protect, and nurture their children's natural aptitude for faith, beginning in early childhood.

Sharing: A good steward knows that it is better to give than to receive, for in giving we receive far more than we could ever have imagined.

Accountable: Remember the parable of the stewards to whom the master had entrusted the silver pieces? They had to render an account of their stewardship. One day, you and I will have to stand in accountability before the judgement seat of God.

And God will ask: "What did you do with all the time that you had? What did you do with all the gifts that I gave you? What did you do with your life?"

Hopefully we will be able to say, "Lord, I tried to thank you every day. I tried to be responsible with those gifts. And I tried to share those gifts with others."

May He respond, "Well done, good and faithful servant. . . enter into the joy of your master" (Mt. 25:21).

Next week's readings:

revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a

Stewardship is a commitment of mind and heart to the Lord; a way of life that needs constant renewal.

Resolve to possess a little more "lightly" this year. Consider ways you can reduce the amount of all that stuff you own. Distinguish between those items that are necessary and those that are considered luxurious and unnecessary.

65% Tax Credit Too Good to be True? Not at all. If you file an Iowa Income Tax Return, your contributions to the Our Faith School Tuition Organization (STO) receive a 65% tax credit. That means for every $1000 you donate, you receive an Iowa income tax credit, not a deduction, of $650, which would lower your Iowa tax bill by $650. In addition, your gift may qualify for federal deductibility. And that gift you made? It's going to provide $1000 in need-based assistance to families in the Archdiocese of Dubuque. And your out of pocket cost for that gift? No more than $350 and will be less if you itemize and are able to take the federal charitable gift deduction! It really is that simple. Visit www.ourfaithsto.org or call the Archdiocese of Dubuque at 800 876-3546 ext 219 to learn more.

Notre Dame Catholic School's Fall Fundraiser, Football Mania, is in full swing! October—Respect Life Month

Christ our Hope: In Every Season of Life

From the time we are knit together in our mother's womb until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us new opportunities to grow in our relationship with God.

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross in order that He might save us. Therefore, "God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end".

The church teaches us that "the one who has hope lives differently". Christ's promise of salvation does not mean that we will be spared from suffering. Rather, the promise of salvation ensures that even in the darkest moments of our lives, we will be given the strength to persevere. By virtue of this Christian hope, we can face any challenge or trial. When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God.

May we hold fast to Christ our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.
