Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 31:7-9; Hebrews 5:1-6; Mark 10:46-52

What is a good steward?

Grateful: Thanking God daily for the blessings he or she has received. A good steward never stops saying, "Thank You".

Responsible: With the blessings that God has bestowed; not only using them prudently, but also making sure that they don't wither away. It's that way with some gifts, isn't it? Think about the gift of music. A musician needs to continue to work with the gift of music or it will fade away. It's that way with every gift, especially the gift of faith. Parents are good stewards when they care for, protect and nurture their children's natural aptitude for faith, beginning in early childhood.

Sharing: A good steward knows that it is better to give than to receive, for in giving we receive far more than we could ever have imagined.

Accountable: Remember the parable of the stewards to whom the master had entrusted the silver pieces? They had to render an account of their stewardship. One day, you and I will have to stand in accountability before the judgement seat of God.

And God will ask: "What did you do with all the time that you had? What did you do with all the gifts that I gave you? What did you do with your life?"

Hopefully we will be able to say, "Lord, I tried to thank you every day. I tried to be responsible with those gifts. And I tried to share those gifts with others."

May He respond, "Well done, good and faithful servant. . . enter into the joy of your Master" (Mt. 25:21)

Next week's readings:

Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 12:28b-34

Accepting New Counseling Clients via Telehealth

If you know of anyone struggling with their brain health during this time, our Catholic Charities Counselors are accepting new clients from any location in the Archdiocese of Dubuque. The telehealth process allows our counselors to meet with clients remotely via computer or other devices. Counseling provides help to maintain emotional health and strengthen relationships. Contact us at 563-588-0558 to be connected to one of our licensed professionals.

Thank You

We are grateful for all the volunteers who offer their time and talent as good stewards for the betterment of the parish. This week we thank the Meals on Wheels volunteers.

Notre Dame School Activity Corner: This year third grade has learned how to follow Jesus's way by showing love for each other and how to show compassion toward others. In Social Studies, we have learned about communities, natural resources, and the environment. Place Value, Rounding, and Estimating have been the highlight of our math time. Literacy has contained time learning how to use our prior knowledge to help make connections to our texts. We rounded that time off with writing narrative essays.

ACCW Continuing Series on Eucharist Adoration: In continuing the education of what Eucharistic Adoration is, paragraph 1418 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) sums up in brief, what adoration truly signifies: Because Christ himself is present in the sacrament of the altar, he is to be honored with the worship of adoration. "To visit the Blessed Sacrament is...a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, and a duty of adoration toward Christ our Lord" (Paul VI MF 66)! Perhaps you want to express your love to Jesus, your gratitude for the freedom of worship, your life, your children. Check your parish bulletin or with your parish office to find out when Adoration in your church is held, and GO VISIT JESUS!

World Mission Sunday Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call to bring the Gospel to all. Envelopes are available in the front entrance to support the work of those who serve the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

During this Respect Life Month, we can start to become more like St. Joseph by asking ourselves a few questions and reflecting on them: Do we realize how precious every person is? As we go about our day, do we treat people accordingly? How can we help those in our society who are struggling to welcome new life, like moms who are pregnant or parenting in difficult circumstances? How can we reach out to those having a hard time seeing the worth of their own lives? How do we reassure those at the end of life who are afraid they are a burden or feel like their lives don't have meaning?
