Reporting unseen works of faith,
hope and charity to uplift you.

Ah, the kindness of strangers! Recently we received two quite generous checks, from visitors to our parish. A handwritten note accompanied one:

I recently was in New York City celebrating my thirty-fifth anniversary with my wife and we attended Mass at your beautiful church. We loved New York, but we were troubled by the homeless we saw. I was unsure what to do, but when I saw your [daily Breakfast Line] Ministry, I decided to contribute something towards its. Please accept the enclosed check for your Outreach Ministries.

PORQUE NO HACEN LO QUE DICEN...

Advirtiendo Jesús a sus discípulos, de nuevo arremete contra el estilo de vida de los escribas y fariseos: un estilo de vida hipócrita. Hipocresía que consiste en la incoherencia entre lo que se cree y lo que se vive, entre lo que se predica y lo que se practica, entre lo que se dice y lo que se hace...

La coherencia y transparencia de vida en la que debe vivir el discípulo nace del reconocimiento de Dios como Padre. Reconocimiento que nos lleva a vivir como sus hijos y, por tanto, como hermanos, los unos de los otros, llamados a “amarnos los unos a los otros”; amor que se manifiesta y concreta, especialmente, en el servicio.

De tal manera que la mayor muestra de coherencia en la vida cristiana la hace no quien más ostenta y manda sin mover un dedo para empujar sino el que más sirve, a ejemplo de aquel que “no vino para ser servido sino para servir...”

Hoy, los discípulos de Cristo nos comportamos como los escribas y fariseos de aquel tiempo, somos hipócritas, somos incoherentes cuando:

- Llamamos a Dios “Padre” pero no vivimos como sus hijos, con la confianza, la esperanza y la dependencia de nuestra vida puesta en El y, por el contrario, nos comportamos como señores o como esclavos...
- Llamamos a Dios Padre “nuestro”, Padre de todos, pero no nos amamos y servimos como hermanos...
